November 19, 1972
Written by Laurence Marks
Directed by William Wiard
Guest Stars: G. Wood

Due to the great success rate of the 4077th, Henry is transferred to administrative duty in Tokyo. Hawkeye and Trapper convince Radar to fake an illness to get Henry to return.

1.12 10

10. I Hate a Mystery (J-306)
November 26, 1972
Written by Hal Dressner
Directed by Hy Averback
Guest Stars: Bonnie Jones, Linda Meiklejohn

Hawkeye plays detective when he becomes the chief suspect in a stealing epidemic. His sleuthful work leads him to the guilty party, none other than Ho John (who still hasn't left for Maine).

1.13 11

11. Germ Warfare (J-304)
December 10, 1972
Written by Larry Gelbart
Directed by Terry Becker
Guest Stars: Robert Gooden, Karen Philipp, Byron Chung

Hawkeye plays Dracula when he steals a pint of Frank's blood. When he suspects Frank of hepatitis, he works frantically (with Radar and Trapper) to keep him away from everyone, including Hot Lips.

1.14 12

12. Dear Dad (J-313)
December 17, 1972
Written by Larry Gelbart
Directed by Gene Reynolds
Guest Stars: Bonnie Jones, Lizabeth Deen, Gary Van Orman

Hawkeye writes his dad, describing the antics of the 4077th--including Mulcahy convincing Klinger not to kill himself. For the finale, Hawkeye goes to the front dressed as Santa to help save a wounded soldier.

1.15 13

13. Edwina (J-312)
December 24, 1972
Written by Hal Dresner
Directed by James Sheldon
Guest Stars: Arlene Golonka, Linda Meiklejohn, Marcia Strassman

The nurses go to extremes to find a date of Nurse Eddie (Edwina)--they won't go out with anyone until Eddie gets a date. The men draw straws, and Hawkeye is the big loser, especially after Eddie nearly kills him in a scene resembling teenage "mating" rituals. :)

1.16 14

14. Love Story (J-314)
January 7, 1973
Written by Laurence Marks
Directed by Earl Bellamy
Guest Stars: Kelly Jean Peters, Indira Danks, Barbara Brownell

Radar gets a "Dear John" letter. To help cheer him up, Hawkeye and Trapper try to help him with a new nurse who's into classical literature and music. Radar's "Ahhhh, Bach!" and "That's highly significant," quotes win him a friend in the nurse.

1.17 15

15. Tuttle (J-315)
January 14, 1973
Written by Bruce Shelly and David Ketchum
Directed by William Wiard
Guest Stars: Herb Volland, Mary-Robin Redd, James Sikking

Hawkeye and Trapper, with Radar's help, invent a fictitious Capt. Tuttle so that his salary can be donated to help a local orphanage. Almost caught by James B. Sikking of Hill St. and Doogie Howser fame, Hawkeye must sorrowfully tell the camp of Tuttle's fate to the whole camp--he leaped from a chopper without a parachute.

41. For Want of a Boot (K-417)
January 12, 1974
Written by Sheldon Keller
Directed by Don Weis
Guest Stars: Michael Lerner, Suzanne Zenor, Johnny Kaymer

A riotous episode in which Hawkeye will do anything to get a new pair of boots. In order to get Zale to get him some, he must get an appointment for Zale with Futterman, the camp dentist, who will only do it if Henry will give him a pass to Tokyo, and Henry will only grant the pass if Houlihan will get off his back, which she will do only if the guys throw a party for Frank's birthday with a cake, and Radar will only help get the cake if he gets a date with Nurse Murphy, who will only date someone with a hair dryer, and Klinger won't give up the hair dryer unless he gets a section 8 (and Frank won't sign). The deal falls through, much to the chagrin of Hawkeye.

1.44 42

42. Operation Noselift (K-418)
January 19, 1974
Written by Erik Tarloff

48. A Smattering of Intelligence (K-424)
March 2, 1974
Written by Larry Gelbart and Laurence Marks
Directed by Larry Gelbart
Guest Stars: Edward Winter, Bill Fletcher

A classic episode in which Col. Flagg and another secret agent from another intelligence agency come to the 4077th to keep their eyes on one another and the camp. Hawkeye and Trapper trick them both into thinking that Burns is a traitor--one thinks he's a fascist, the other thinks he's a communist.

1.51 49

49. The General Flipped at Dawn (B-308)
September 10, 1974
Written by Jim Fritzell and Everett Greenbaum
Directed by Larry Gelbart
Guest Stars: Harry Morgan (!), Jamie Farr, Bill Christopher, Lynnette Mettey, Theodore Wilson, Brad Trumbull, Dennis Erdman

In a stunning performance that won him a role as Col. Potter, Harry Morgan guests as loony General Bartford Hamilton Steele. Even Klinger thinks Gen. Steele is nuts when he mistakes Klinger for his wife, Marjorie. Morgan won an Emmy for his performance in this episode.

1.52 50

50. Rainbow Bridge (B-301)
September 17, 1974
Written by Larry Gelbart and Laurence Marks
Directed by Hy Averback
Guest Stars: Jamie Farr, Bill Christopher, Mako, Leland Sun, Bobbie Mitchell, Loudon Wainwright III

As Hawkeye and Trapper are planning to leave for Tokyo, an unusual offer to swap POW patients between the Chinese and the 4077th comes in. Henry, after much debate, agrees to send Hawk, Trap, Burns, Radar, and Klinger into enemy territory. Burns almost botches the swap when he brings a squirt gun to the exchange. Fortunately, the Chinese Dr. Lin Tam has a sense of humor (he went to U. of Illinois, after all).

1.53 51

51. Officer of the Day (B-307)

September 24, 1974

Written by Laurence Marks

Directed by Hy Averback

Guest Stars: Jamie Farr, Bill Christopher, Edward Winter,
Dennis Troy, Jeff Maxwell, Jerry Fujikawa, Tad Horino,
Richard Lee Sung, Mitchell Sakamoto, Norman Hamano,
Mary Katherine Peters, Tom Lawrence

While Henry is away in Seoul, Burns and Houlihan are in charge, and Hawkeye is the officer of the day. His refusal to release a wounded Korean wanted by US Intelligence leads to a confrontation with Col. Flagg.

1.54 52

52. Iron Guts Kelly (B-304)

October 1, 1974

Written by Larry Gelbart and Sid Dorfman

Directed by Don Weis

Guest Stars: James Gregory, Keen Curtis, Bobbie Mitchell, Byron Chung,
Alberto Jay, Jeff Maxwell, Dennis Troy

General Iron Guts Kelly dies inconveniently in Houlihan's tent (perhaps the excitement was too much?!), so his aide sets out to make it appear as if the general has died gloriously in battle.

1.55 53

53. O.R. (B-306)

October 8, 1974

Written by Larry Gelbart and Laurence Marks

Directed by Gene Reynolds

56. Life With Father (B-302)
October 29, 1974
Written by Everett Greenbaum and Jim Fritzell
Directed by Hy Averback
Guest Stars: Bill Christopher, Sachiko Penny Lee

Mail from home worries Henry that Lorraine may be seeing other men. Father Mulcahy presides over a Jewish circumcision ceremony for the Korean-born son of a US GI.

1.59 57

57. Alcoholics Unanimous (B-314)
November 12, 1974
Written by Everett Greenbaum and Jim Fritzell
Directed by Hy Averback
Guest Stars: Jamie Farr, Bobbie Mitchell, William Christopher

Henry's departure to Tokyo leaves Maj. Burns in charge of the 4077th. He declares total prohibition of alcohol, which leads to a near riot amongst the camp (especially from Hawkeye and Trapper).

1.60 58

58. There is Nothing Like a Nurse (B-309)
November 19, 1974
Written by Larry Gelbart
Directed by Hy Averback
Guest Stars: Jamie Farr, Loudon Wainwright III, Bill Christopher,
Bobbie Mitchell, Molli Benson, Jeanne Schulherr,

The nurses are evacuated when the threat of an enemy parachute drop arises. Hawkeye and Trapper try to enliven everyone's spirits with them gone.

1.61 59

59. Adam's Ribs (B-316)
November 26, 1974
Written by Laurence Marks
Directed by Gene Reynolds
Guest Stars: Basil Hoffman, Joe Stern, Jeff Maxwell

A riotous episode! Hawkeye, driven near insanity, starts a riot in the mess tent after several weeks of "a river of liver and an ocean of fish." To spice up their diets, Hawkeye, Trapper, and Radar scheme to get spare ribs sent to the 4077th from Chicago. The ribs arrive, just in time for the arrival of wounded.

1.62 60

60. A Full Rich Day (B-311)
December 3, 1974
Written by John D. Hess
Directed by Gene Reynolds
Guest Stars: Jamie Farr, William Watson, Sirri Murad, Curt Lowens,
Michael Keller, Kellee Nakahara

Hawkeye records a letter to his dad, detailing the exploits of a mad Turkish soldier who calls Hawkeye a "damn good Joe," the unfortunate loss of the corpse of a Luxembourg soldier (who turns out not to be dead), and of a gun-happy officer.

1.63 61

61. Mad Dogs and Servicemen (B-317)
December 10, 1974
Written by Linda Bloodworth and Mary Kay Place
Directed by Hy Averback
Guest Stars: Michael O'Keefe, Shizuko Hoshi, Arthur Song, Jeff Maxwell, Bobbie Mitchell

Radar is bitten by a local dog, and the camp conducts a search to find the pooch so that Radar doesn't have to undergo a series of painful rabies vaccinations. Hawkeye defies Frank to take care of a GI who's suffering from a case of hysterical paralysis.

1.64 62

62. Private Charles Lamb (B-310)
December 31, 1974
Written by Larry Gelbart and Sid Dorfman
Directed by Hy Averback
Guest Stars: Ted Eccles, Titos Vandis, Gene Chronopoulos

A Greek feast at the camp is foiled when soft-hearted Radar saves the main course from the spit--a lamb, whom Radar tricks Henry into giving a medical discharge and sends home to Ottumwa. Thus, Hawkeye and Trapper invent the famed Spam Lamb!

1.65 63

63. Bombed (B-320)
January 7, 1975
Written by Jim Fritzell and Everett Greenbaum
Directed by Hy Averback
Guest Stars: Jamie Farr, William Christopher, Louisa Moritz,
Edward Marshall

The camp is under fire and is swamped with wounded. Maj. Burns is driven with jealousy of Trapper into proposing to Houlihan.

1.66 64

January 14, 1975
Written by Larry Gelbart
Directed by Alan Alda
Guest Stars: Jamie Farr, William Christopher, Johnny Haymer, Patricia Stevens, Kellee Nakahara

Camp activities include Henry's nervous delivery of a sex lecture (while Hawkeye and Trapper heckle), a Shirley Temple movie, and a cookout.

1.67 65

65. The Consultant (B-318)
January 21, 1975
Written by Larry Gelbart and Robert Klane

Directed by Gene Reynolds
Guest Stars: William Christopher, Robert Alda, Joseph Maher,
Tad Horino

Dr. Borelli visits to demonstrate his artery transplant technique. Unfortunately, being so close to the front at the 4077th causes Borelli's drinking problem to interfere at the worst time--when a patient needs the transplant.

1.68 66

66. House Arrest (B-315)
February 4, 1975
Written by Jim Fritzell and Everett Greenbaum
Directed by Hy Averbach
Guest Stars: Jamie Farr, William Christopher, Mary Wickes, Bobbie Mitchell, Jeff Maxwell, Dennis Troy, Kelleye Nakahara

Hawkeye hits Maj. Burns and Houlihan is a witness, despite Hawkeye and Trapper's claims that it wasn't intentional. A female colonel is sent to investigate Burns' allegations. When she cries "Rape!" when Burns visits her tent, Houlihan recants her story, and Burns, not Hawkeye, ends up under house arrest.

1.69 67

67. Aid Station (B-322)
February 11, 1975
Written by Larry Gelbart and Simon Muntner
Directed by William Jurgensen
Guest Stars: Jamie Farr, William Christopher, Tom Dever

Hawkeye, Houlihan, and Klinger go to an aid station at the front. Working closely together under heavy fire and unsanitary medical conditions, the three return to camp with new found respect for one another.

1.70 68

February 25, 1975
Written by Laurence Marks
Directed by Don Weis
Guest Stars: Jamie Farr, Graham Jarvis, Loudon Wainwright III, Bob Courtleigh, Jeanne Schulherr

The camp prepares for a visit from General MacArthur. Klinger dresses as the Statue of Liberty as the General's jeep drives through the camp. Mac Arthur is so impressed, he salutes!

1.72 70

70. Payday (B-305)
March 4, 1975
Written by John Regier and Gary Markowitz
Directed by Hy Averbach
Guest Stars: Jamie Farr, Bill Christopher, Jack Soo, Eldo Quick, Johnny Haymer, Mary Katherine Peters, Bobbie Mitchell, Jeff Maxwell, Leland Sun, George Holloway, George Simmons, Pat Marshall

Payday arrives, bringing lots of 18204 for Hawkeye (for claiming he wasn't getting what he should because of the war). Burns buys his wife a pearl necklace, and gives the fakes to Houlihan. Trapper finally wins a huge poker pot after stealing Hawk's watch, only to see the loot vanish to save Hawkeye's neck (since he gave his windfall to the orphanage).

1.73 71

71. White Gold (B-319)
March 11, 1975
Written by Larry Gelbart and Simon Muntner
Directed by Hy Averbach
Guest Stars: Jamie Farr, William Christopher, Edward Winter, Hilly Hicks, Stafford Repp, Michael A. Salcido, Danil Thorpe

Colonel Flagg blows into camp trying to obtain penicillin to barter for information. But Flagg comes down with appendicitis, and the only penicillin he gets is in the keister.

1.74 72

March 18, 1975
Written by Everett Greenbaum and Jim Fritzell
Directed by Larry Gelbart

Guest Stars: Jamie Farr, William Christopher, Kimiko Hiroshige,
Virginia Lee, Cherylene Lee, Ray Poss

A classic! Henry finally gets his discharge. While Henry is tying things up, Burns prepares for his new command. Henry bids a tearful adieu, but not before Klinger turns up in an outrageous tropical outfit (and gets Henry to zip him up) and a kiss to Houlihan. He gives Radar a hug and his last order: "You better be good now or I'm gonna come back and kick your butt!" In the traumatic and shocking last scene, Radar announces that Henry has been killed when his plane was shot down over the Sea of Japan.

155. Dear Comrade (T-413)
November 27, 1978
Written by Tom Reeder
Directed by Charles S. Dubin
Guest Stars: Sab Shimono, Larry Block, Robert Clotworthy

Hawkeye and B.J. discover that Charles is living the life of Riley thanks to the attentions of his menially paid Korean servant (Sab Shimono), a man of unusual skills. He has an important contribution to make--a native remedy for a seemingly insoluble medical problem.

1.158 156

156. Out of Gas (T-411)
December 4, 1978
Written by Tom Reeder
Directed by Mel Damski
Guest Stars: Justin Lord, Byron Chung, Johnny Haymer

Heavy casualties are arriving, creating severe problems for the M*A*S*H unit because they are nearly out of pentothal. Mulcahy takes up a collection from everyone--including a case of wine from Charles' private supply--and he and Charles take the jeep to make a trade with the black marketeers for pentothal.

1.159 157

157. An Eye for a Tooth (T-414)
December 11, 1978
Written by Ronny Graham
Directed by Charles S. Dubin
Guest Stars: Peter Palmer

Father Mulcahy takes being passed over for promotion philosophically until he hears of the rapid advancement made by a heroic helicopter pilot. Then his uncharacteristically bold actions stun Colonel Potter and the entire company.

1.160 158

158. Dear Sis (T-417)
December 18, 1978
Written by Alan Alda
Directed by Alan Alda
Guest Stars: Lawrason Driscoll, Patrcik Driscoll, Jo Ann Thomson,
W. Perren Page

Father Mulcahy writes a pre-Christmas letter home to his sister, who is a nun. His frustration at not being more effective at the 4077th seems to represent the general depression of the unit's personnel as they approach the holiday season thousands of miles away from their loved ones.

1.161 159

159. B.J. Papa San (T-402)
January 1, 1979
Written by Larry Balmagia
Directed by James Sheldon
Guest Stars: Dick O'Neill, Michael Aragon, Chao-Li Chi, Stephen Keep, Johnny Haymer, Richard Furukawa, Shizuko Hoshi

B.J. becomes almost the surrogate father to a Korean family. Finding them a substitute for his own absent family, B.J. spends so much time with them that his medical efficiency begins to suffer, and Hawkeye worries about his health.

1.162 160

160. Inga (T-420)
January 8, 1979
Written by Alan Alda
Directed by Alan Alda
Guest Stars: Mariette Hartley, Phyllis Katz, Mark Favara

It's instant attraction for Hawkeye when a beautiful Swedish doctor (Mariette Hartley) arrives to observe combat surgery. That is, until she upstages him in the operating room with a superior technique and his ego is bruised.

1.163 161

161. The Price (T-418)
January 15, 1979
Written by Erik Tarloff
Directed by Charles S. Dubin
Guest Stars: Miko Mayama, Yuki Shimoda, Ken Mochizuki

The 4077th is confronted by two crises: Colonel Potter's mare, Sophie, mysteriously disappears from her corral, and Hawkeye and B.J. find themselves with a young Korean boy on their hands who is trying to avoid conscription into the Army.

1.164 162

162. The Young and Restless (T-421)
January 22, 1979
Written by Mitch Markowitz
Directed by William Jurgensen
Guest Stars: James Canning

A lecture on the latest techniques by a young surgeon from Tokyo and a later demonstration of his surgical skill bring home to the resident M*A*S*H surgeons that they are out of touch with new medical practices.

1.165 163

163. Hot Lips is Back in Town (T-419)
January 29, 1979
Written by Larry Balmagia and Bernard Dilbert
Directed by Charles S. Dubin
Guest Stars: Peggy Lee Brennan, Walter Brooke, Jan Jordan

Radar, who is smitten with the cute new nurse (Peggy Lee Brennan) at the hospital, relies on Hawkeye's expertise on how to cope with the situation. Hot Lips, meanwhile, celebrates her just-granted divorce by taking a step that arouses Colonel Potter's ire.

1.166 164

164. C*A*V*E (T-423)
February 5, 1979
Written by Larry Balmagia and Ronny Graham
Directed by William Jurgensen
Guest Stars: Basil Hoffman, Mark Taylor, Charles Jenkins

The 4077th evacuation to a nearby cave to avoid U.S. artillery fire on a Chinese target poses another hazard for Hawkeye, who has a claustrophobia problem that Colonel Potter is unaware of.

1.167 165

165. Rally Round the Flagg, Boys (T-425)
February 14, 1979
Written by Mitch Markowitz
Directed by Harry Morgan
Guest Stars: Edward Winter, Neil Thompson, Bob Okazaki

The sinister Colonel Flagg (Edward Winter) pops up at the 4077th again, playing his usual spy games, convinced that Hawkeye is a communist sympathizer.

1.168 166

166. Preventive Medicine (T-416)
February 19, 1979
Written by Tom Reeder
Directed by Tony Mordente
Guest Stars: James Wainwright, Larry Jenkins

The number of arriving wounded has increased because of a careless Colonel Lacy (James Wainwright). Hawkeye slips Lacy something to make him ill and removes his appendix under the strong protests of B.J.

1.169 167

167. A Night at Rosie's (T-426)
February 26, 1979
Written by Ken Levine and David Isaacs
Directed by Burt Metcalfe
Guest Stars: Keye Luke, Joshua Bryant, Joseph Di Reda

Hawkeye, B.J., and their medical cohorts find a new way to escape the depressing atmosphere of the war, remaining at Rosie's (Eileen Saki) Bar, much to the displeasure of Colonel Potter.

1.170 168

168. Ain't Love Grand (T-422)
March 5, 1979
Written by Ken Levine and David Isaacs
Directed by Mike Farrell
Guest Stars: Kit McDonough, Sylvia Chang, Eileen Saki, Michael Williams, Judy Farrell

The impossible happens for the snobbish Charles when he shares an emotional experience with Klinger, who discovers a U.S. nurse (Kit McDonough) who finds him and his bizarre attire attractive, while Charles succumbs to the exotic charms of a Korean girl (Sylvia Chang) he meets at Rosie's (Eileen Saki) Bar.

1.171 169

169. The Party (T-424)
March 12, 1979
Written by Burt Metcalfe and Alan Alda
Directed by Burt Metcalfe
Guest Stars: Burt Metcalfe

Talk of a post-war reunion suggests an idea to B.J.: planning a present-day stateside gathering of 4077th families, a scheme he continues to promote even under the duress of "bugging out" in the wake of a Chinese breakthrough.

1.172 170

170. Too Many Cooks (S-601)
September 17, 1979
Written by Dennis Koenig
Directed by Charles S. Dubin
Guest Stars: John Randolph, Ed Begley, Jr.

A clumsy foot soldier (Ed Begley, Jr.) finds the quickest way to the crew's heart, boosting morale at the war-weary 4077th by cooking gourmet delights. Only Colonel Potter, burdened with a personal crisis, is immune from the high spirits enveloping the hospital.

1.173 171

171. Are You Now, Margaret (S-602)
September 24, 1979
Written by Thad Mumford and Dan Wilcox
Directed by Charles S. Dubin
Guest Stars: Lawrence Pressman, Jennifer Davis, Jeff Maxwell

A Congressional aide (Lawrence Pressman) visits the 4077th on a supposedly routine fact-finding tour, but it's discovered that his motives are far deeper.

October 1, 1979
Written by Bob Colleary
Directed by Alan Alda
Guest Stars: Mako, Joshua Bryant, Huanani Minn, George Kee Cheung, Marcus Mukai, Connie Izay

The arrival of a wounded Korean woman sparks a conflict at the 4077th: Hawkeye wants to heal her, but a steely ROK officer (Mako) is more anxious to "question" her about alleged guerilla activities.

1.175 173

173. Good-Bye Radar (Part 1) (S-610)
October 8, 1979
Written by Ken Levine and David Isaacs
Directed by Charles S. Dubin
Guest Stars: Marylin Jones, Johnny Haymer, Michael O'Dwyer, Richard Lee-Sung, Tony Cristmo, Arell Blanton

Company clerk Radar O'Reilly (Gary Burghoff), on leave in Tokyo, is desperately needed back at the crisis-stricken 4077th, but his return is delayed by outside events. While casualties continue to pour in from the front, the 4077th's generator conks out, depriving the medical unit of all electrical power. But Klinger, filling in for the vacationing Radar, lacks the expertise and experience to wheel and deal for a new machine.

1.176 174

174. Good-Bye Radar (Part 2) (S-611)
October 15, 1979
Written by Ken Levine and David Isaacs
Directed by Charles S. Dubin
Guest Stars: Lee de Broux, Whitney Rydbeck, David Dozer

As company clerk Radar O'Reilly reluctantly prepares to depart the 4077th, the unit is still without electricity due to a broken generator, and the operating room continues to fill up with war wounded as night falls. The responsibility for procuring a new generator falls on Klinger, who lacks Radar's masterful knack of cutting through red tape in search of much-needed supplies.

1.177 175

175. Period of Adjustment (S-604)
October 22, 1979
Written by Jim Mulligan and John Rappaport
Directed by Charles S. Dubin
Guest Stars: Jeff Maxwell, Eileen Saki, Gwen Farrell

Klinger, taking over as the 4077th's new clerk, wearies of complaints about his inefficiency, while B.J.'s homesickness is intensified by news of Radar's visit to his family.

188. Morale Victory (S-619)
January 28, 1980
Written by John Rappaport
Directed by Charles S. Dubin
Guest Stars: James Stephens, G.W. Bailey, Connie Izay

Tired of their constant complaints about the quality of recreational activities at the 4077th, Colonel Potter appoints Hawkeye and B.J. as the new morale officers. Winchester's morale has already reached a new peak. He's ecstatic about his operation on a wounded soldier (James Stephens) which saved the boy's leg, leaving only "negligible" side effects--the loss of use of his arm. However, the soldier was a concert pianist before the war, so Winchester obtains music written by Maurice Ravel for a pianist that had lost a hand in World War I.

1.191 189

189. Lend a Hand (S-621)
February 4, 1980
Written by Alan Alda
Directed by Alan Alda
Guest Stars: Robert Alda, Antony Alda, Daren Kelly, Shari Saba

Irritated that the 4077th is planning a "surprise" party for him, Hawkeye volunteers to go to the aid of a wounded surgeon at the front. An additional irritant to Hawkeye is the arrival of Dr. Borelli (Robert Alda), a wisecracking medical advisor with whom he habitually disagrees. (NOTE: Alda's brother Antony also appears in this episode as an ambulance driver).

Although reports that the war is almost over reach the camp with increasing frequency, the 4077th is still full with refugees and prisoners of war. Fresh casualties pour in as both sides try to gain ground before the armistice. A deeply troubled Hawkeye has been sent away to the psychiatric hospital where Dr. Sidney Freedman tries to help him find the cause of his breakdown, which is associated with a tragic incident on a trip back from RR(?) at the beach.

Other members of the unit are coping with the final days of war, and making plans to get out. Hot Lips' father is trying to find her a glamorous Army post. B.J. is determined to make it back for his daughter's birthday. Charles wants a plum appointment at a Boston hospital. Klinger worries about Soon-Lee's attempts to find her parents. The normal business of the camp is interrupted by a runaway Army tank that crashes into the compound and destroys the half-built latrine.

With two results. First, Charles wanders off to relieve himself and stumbles on a group of Chinese musicians. They surrender and come back with him to the camp. Second, the enemy spots the tank and begins to shell the base. Father Mulcahy bravely ventures out under fire to release the POWs, a shell explodes near him, and he suffers a mild concussion. When B.J. examines him, he detects a hearing loss that Father Mulcahy begs him to keep from the rest of the company.

The barrage continues as the unit fails to move the tank out. Hawkeye returns to the 4077th and is called straight into the O.R. He is urgently needed because B.J. has received orders permitting him to go home.

Charles learns that he has been appointed to him Boston hospital but quarrels violently with Hot Lips on discovering that she has pulled strings for him. He consoles himself by teaching the Chinese musicians a little touch of Mozart. Klinger, meanwhile, has brought back a reluctant Soon-Lee to the safety of the camp, although she is still determined to find her parents. He is obviously in love.

The pressure on the company is temporarily relieved when Hawkeye, who has coped successfully with his return to surgery, drives the tank into the 4077th's trash dump. But only temporarily. Fires started by incendiary bombs in the surrounding woods are visible from the camp and Colonel Potter orders evacuation proceedings.

The Colonel's desperate plea for a relief surgeon is answered unexpectedly by the return of B.J., who was already one-third of the way home when the Army recalled him to fulfill the Colonel's staff request. He misses his daughter's birthday, but the company hosts a birthday party for an orphan with B.J. as the guest of honor. Klinger proposes marriage and is accepted by Soon-Lee. He is overjoyed. Charles, however, is not so happy when he loses his "orchestra" to a relocation center.

The end of the war is only hours away, but the casualties keep coming in -- among them Charles' flutist. Finally, the surgical teams learn of the immediate ceasefire as they operate on a group of desperately wounded soldiers and civilians. The war is over.

At the noisy, joyful camp party that night, members of the company talk about their lives after the war. Colonel Potter looks forward to becoming a semi-retired country doctor. Hot Lips declares she has opted for the States and a big city hospital. Klinger announces his engagement and says that he is staying in Korea to help find Soon-Lee's parents. Charles is still going to Boston, despite Hot Lips' "meddling." B.J., of course, wants to go home, yet refuses to actually say "goodbye" to the others. And Hawkeye? Perhaps, after all, he will not be going to the big city surgical post that he always dreamed of ...

After Klinger and Soon-Lee marry and leave the camp in traditional Korean style, the other members of the company depart one by one. By now, the camp is a ghost town. Father Mulcahy leaves to start a new life ministering to the deaf. Hot Lips is kissed and hugged. Even her disagreement with Charles is reconciled. Charles himself exits with Rizzo in a garbage truck. Colonel Potter takes Sophie for one last ride before she is adopted by the orphanage. Finally, B.J. and Hawkeye go together on B.J.'s motorbike to meet Hawkeye's chopper. As Hawkeye looks down over the desolate camp, he sees a message B.J. has left on the pad: a GOODBYE marked out in stone.
