

PROGRAMMER'S OVERVIEW OF MAC OS 8

Description:

This course describes the main components of Mac OS 8, their functionality and their interrelationships from a programmer's point of view.

The course covers:

- Microkernel concepts
- The application model
- The file system
- High-level toolbox
- Internationalization issues

Note: there are no hands-on programming labs in this class.

Facts:

Leader-led seminar, no labs

1 day

$200

Dates:

Aug 30

Sept 27

Nov 1

Nov 22

Dec 20

Target Audience:

Macintosh programmers who will need to program for Mac OS 8.

Prerequisites:

You should have at least 6 months of C or Pascal programming experience and have developed at least one Macintosh application or driver for System 7.5.

Course Outline:

The course covers:

- Microkernel concepts
- The application model
- The file system
- High-level toolbox
- Internationalization issues