

PPP is an acronym for Point to Point Protocol, which is the language that your computer speaks to your Internet Service Provider in order to make a dial up connection to the Internet.