Telnet is a method of connecting to servers on the Internet.  The user is then presented with a text based command prompt, or menu system to access other features of the Internet.