Snail Mail is a term used to describe the standard postal service in your area. Regular postal service can take days or weeks to deliver a message, while Email generally only takes a few minutes, hence the term Snail Mail.