Shareware are programs which you are allowed to use based on the honor system. They may be freely downloaded, but if you use the program a lot, you are required to purchase it from the authors.