Uploading is the process of sending a file from your computer, to another computer connected on the Internet.   This is normally done if you had a file you wanted to share with others.