Logging Off or Out is the process of disconnecting from another computer on the Internet.   This is normally done after you have finished doing what you want on a server.   Also used to describe hanging up from your Internet Service Provider.