This month we have a brand new CD interface, which means a new way of browsing the selected software. As well as the normal software sections, there is a 'Featured' (listing software featured within the magazine) section and a monthly "Toolkit' (WAP tools this month) area. Lastly, next month expect more high quality software and a few CD interface additions.