1.2 ze U.F.O. Phenomenon

R.R.R. gives you the real, unmodified thoughts of our masterminds. They set themselves to discover the truth about the Alien nations and their hideous plans considering the human race.

But very first,

Toggle the inspiring music

and

See the title page!

So you can get into the 'mood', sense "them" lurking there, slime-dripping, vile-smelling and hungry, at the "gates"...

And then enter the world of grey men.

Preliminary information 1/2/3/4/5.
You should read the preliminary information before going on.
It is essential for you to know about the plans the Aliens and the U.S. Government are having. Please read them.
The existence of the human race is in danger.

In this publication our two scientist look-alikes, Teuvo Tursas and Tailgunner, are inspecting the serious matter from various points of a view. Here are their thoughts.

Next is Tailgunner.

1.4 Teuvo's Tale

This matter is so huge that I'll just start by saying some universal facts. First of all it is very hard to find any evidence to prove that the given arguments were correct.
If you were inside the byro you had a slight possibility to gather some secret information, but like most of us normal people we'll have no chance to obtain them.
Anyway we all have brains, so why not use them.

Here is what I think of this.

1.... The existence of aliens.

I believe that there are aliens. (Nice one. - Jeff)
The fact that so many have reported UFO abducts or fly-bys is one concrete evidence that the grey men exist.
One people can lie, not thousands. (Mass lunacy?)
We are surrounded by billions of stars, which provide the same possibilities for life as our sun. It would be pure insanity not to agree that. Somewhere in the deep space there is one alien lifeform having fun right now.
The big question is the distance between us and them and their current tech-level. They are far away, that is for sure.
But the possibility that they were on the same tech-stage as us is extremely small; They are behind or way ahead us. The possibility that they were on the same stage is very small.
If they have discovered some, unknow to us, ways to travel fast, then it is not impossible that they have located their base on the dark side of the moon.
The neat thing to know is that how they located us.

The other possibility is that we just have not met in the space; they have made us. Like one of the texts says that the aliens claim that they created human and the religion. If they created us that leads to another question...

2.... The purpose of the alien beholding.

If the aliens created us, then we are in trouble. They have followed us, as creators, and they know the weaknesses of the human. One of my other theories is that they also created the dinosaurs. But the evolution of the dinosaurs just went into the wrong direction and the aliens decided to wipe them out. Or perhaps the aliens picked the best monsters to add them into their alien games and destroyed the weaks. I also note that one of the texts says that the CIA's drug business' main goal is to kill the weak parts of our society and provide them enough money to keep on testing those alien vessels. Then when the time comes the aliens would pick up the strongest humans and perhaps kill the rest unwanted beings.

But why did the aliens do all this?

They just do not want to look how a life form or a civilization develops itself. If they had wanted to then they would not have traded their technology for human lives. Using alien technology is not the same thing as develop our own technics. One thing is for sure and that is the fact that the aliens have some purpose for us. If they were just hostile creatures they would have killed us a long time ago. I think that they will use us as slaves, because we are not as intelligent as they are and we are many thousands of years behind them in technology. The killing of the weak humans using drugs is other proof. Who wants weak slaves? The Romans did not, nor did the Egyptians. If they were on mission of peace then they would not have interfered with our living on Earth, but the fact that they are abducting innocent people and cutting them into pieces means that they are hostile. If they had wanted to investigate humans they would have snatched some books and learned the needed information from them. Or from some doctors and scientists. Or then they just want to learn of us using their own methods.

But the slave thing is also uncertain; why to see so much trouble and use thousands of years to create a slave. They could use their own people as slaves. And what would they want to do with slaves? Maybe they are just poor lonely things without any friends and want to create their own ideal mate. Or then they are just keeping an eye on us, because they do not want us to become hostile creatures. The humans are keen on fighting and maybe they want to kill us out. I sure hope that peace is their main goal.

But certainly this happened to the poor little elves :(

3.... It is the time to meet with the aliens.

I'm not sure, but I've predicted the final meeting to occur during the next fifty years. If the additional information is correct then that is true. It was said in one of the texts that the aliens have put some small implants into the brains of every 40th human. And it also stated that when the time comes the aliens will use the implants to control the humans. That leads to the conclusion that the final meeting will happen soon; as much as I know any additional cucumber put into any living being cannot not be found in the beings baby. Only the things that are written into the human's sex-genes will occur in the next generation. Why had the aliens implanted humans if the poor things were about to die because of being too old. What a waste of implants. Some logic please. I hope that they are coming while I live. I would like to kick some hostile alien butt. At least I would try.

4.... Humans.

What if we are the aliens' creations? What if they made the religions? When the aliens come with Jesus (also their creation) in the front of their lines some people are really going to get mad. Most probably they are going to go bananas. Well, I myself am not a believer. I knew long time ago that the aliens were playing with us, but did not have any material to prove that. Boy, did the aliens have fun while floating around places wearing funny feather costumes (Acting angels and stuff) and telling the people how to behave. Now I know it is true. Worshipping God is the same as worshipping aliens. But who had known that the aliens made the God up. Most evil, I say.

5.... Other views.

Perhaps all these UFO sights are phoney. Maybe CIA or some other major firm has succeeded in producing an ultimate war machine and they do not want to tell about it. So they established an attempt to fool the people while developing and testing their own gadget on Area-51 or in some other place. The false truth about having deals with UFOs would give a nice protection from the media and from other institutions which do not believe in UFOs.

6.... Conclusion.

I repeat that this matter is so huge and kept well in secret that it is very hard to tell who is right and who is wrong, but the day will come, which will answer to all our questions.

The humans just cannot make things this big up themselves. The aliens are coming. Prepare yourselves for the final encounter.

I had not been eating any mushrooms before writing this article. At least part of it is true and you will know it too after you have read the additional information.

Aliens - Always "IN"

During the ages, parties come and go, boozes vary, clothes change. Only one thing stays. The extraterrestrial weenies, horrors and monsters are always in and hot topic. The ancient greeks, egyptians, incas and even christians saw aliens. The bible is ridden with notes about aliens and their tricks. Just check it out.

It depends on the current culture in which form we will see the aliens. They are clever and seem to love a good theatre play and have a lot of different costumes to dress on and fool us stupid humans. Perhaps we have finally advanced enough in order to see their real outlook. Or perhaps not. Current one (gray little fellas with big black eyes) may be as fishy as all of their previous forms.

As Teuvo told in his article, there's just so many possibilities of alien existence. Then why just one race? There must be plenty of them. Or perhaps earth is currently a personal playground for just one race. This is quite boring for us. We'd like more relationships with interesting species, not only this one for now and forever. Remember all boys and girls, if you will be abducted, please tell them that we want more friends to do some cultural exchange with.

Here below is a neat piece of an ancient book about aliens.

Perhaps during the 7th century they were quite close to the truth. At least the information stated in it has been so original and personal that it has set directions for many researchers and writers today. It also contains a nice and modern theory of different planes and their suitability for life.

This etext version of the book, Al Azif has been entered into Hypertext by Ken Ottinger over the course of some few months. This project was completely funded by the Universal Life Trust.

AL AZIF

Ye Book of Ye Arab, Abdul Alhazred, 730 at Damascus

Of Ye Old Ones and their Spawn

The Old Ones were, the Old Ones are and the Old Ones shall be. From the dark stars They came ere man was born, unseen and loathsome They descended to primal earth.

Beneath the oceans They brooded while ages past, till seas gave up the land, whereupon They swarmed forth in Their multitudes and darkness ruled the Earth.

At the frozen Poles They raised mighty cities, and upon high places the temples of Those whome nature owns not and the Gods have cursed.

And the spawn of the Old Ones covered the Earth, and Their children endureth throughout the ages. Ye shantaks of Leng are the work of Their hands, the Ghosts who dwelleth in Zin's primordial vaults know Them as their Lords. They have fathered the Na-Hag and the Gaunts that ride the Night; Great Cthulhuis Their brother, the shaggoths Their slaves. The Dholes do homage unto Them in the nighted vale of Pnoth and Gugs sing Their praises beneath the peaks of ancient Throk.

They have walked amidst the stars and They have walked the Earth. The City of Irem in the great desert has known Them; Leng in the Cold Waste has seen Their passing, the timeless citadel upon the cloud-vieled heights of unknown Kadath beareth Their mark.

Wantonly the Old Ones trod the ways of darkness and Their blasphemies were great upon the Earth; all creation bowed beneath Their might and knew Them for Their wickedness.

And the Elder Lords opened Their eyes and beheld the abominations of Those that ravaged the Earth. In Their wrath They set their hand against the Old Ones, staying Them in the midst of Their iniquity and casting Them forth from the Earth to the Void beyond the planes where chaos reigns and form abideth not. And the Elder Lords set Their seal upon the Gateway and the power of the Old Ones prevailest not against its might.

Loathsome Cthulhu rose then from the deeps and raged with exceeding great fury against the Earth Guardians. And They bound his venomous claws with potent spells and sealed him up within the City of R'lyeh wherein beneath the waves he shall sleep death's dream until the end of the Aeon.

Beyond the Gate dwell now the Old Ones; not in the spaces known unto men but in the angles betwixt them. Outside Earth's plane They linger and ever awaite the time of Their return; for the Earth has known Them and shall know Them in time yet to come.

And the Old Ones hold foul and formless Azathoth for Their Master abd Abide with Him in the black cavern at the centre of all infinity, where he gnaws ravenously in ultimate chaos amid the mad beating of hidden drums, the tuneless piping of hideous flutes and the ceaseless bellowing of blind idiot gods that shamble and gesture aimlessly for ever.

The soul of Azathoth dwelleth in Yog-sothoth and He shall beckon unto the Old Ones when the stars mark the time of Their coming; for Yog-sothoth is the Gate through which Those of the Void will re-enter. Yog-sothoth knowest the mazes of of time, for all time is one unto Him. He knowest where the Old Ones came forth in time along long past and where They shall come forth again when the cycle returneth.

Yog-Sothoth doing cultural exchange (Artists view)

After day cometh night; man's day shall pass, and They shall rule where They once ruled. As foulness you shall know them and Their accursedness shall stain the Earth.
