MiscKit Authors

This file details the authors of the MiscKit. Changes to a portion of the MiscKit should be forwarded to the appropriate author/manager, as listed. (To the manager, if one exists, otherwise to the author.) For history's sake, those who have contributed code are also listed. The information is presented below as follows:

Resource: (object, palette, documentation, app, whatever this includes) a: original author, e-mail address

o: owner (copyright holder), e-mail address

m: manager (send changes, bug reports, and suggestions here), e-mail address

c: contributors (one per line, if any), e-mail address

In cases where the a, o, or m fields are the same person, you will see a line like this:

a, o, m: person, e-mail

Multiple maintainers are also possible, like this, though such arrangements are discouraged:

m: person, e-mail (object)

m: person, e-mail (palette)

m: person, e-mail (documentation)

If you have general comments about the MiscKit, or would like to recommend a resource (object, app, utility, whatever) to add to the MiscKit, contact the MiscKit mailing list at misckit@byu.edu. To get on or off the list, contact the list maintainer at misckit-request@byu.edu. For special concerns, contact the MiscKit administrator (moderator), Don Yacktman, at Don_Yacktman@byu.edu.

In Temp folder, works in progress

Many of these objects need to have names changed and details worked out before they can be integrated with the rest of the kit. As this is done, they will migrate to the standard locations. They are here (with the author's permission) so that you can see where things are headed, and in an emergency, make use of the items here now, even though they aren't fully integrated and are subject to change in interface, etc. (The administrator also has a private Temp directory for other submissions that are pending; it tends to be 3-4 times the size of the Temp directory on average. Thos submissions have been held back at the author's request.)

DataStructures: objects

a, o, m: Don Yacktman, Don_Yacktman@byu.edu (PriorityQueue)

a, o, m: Doug McClure, ets!dougm@uunet.UU.NET (MiscPriorityQueue)

Note: Well, we've already got a priority queue, but here are two other contenders. We have to figure out how to combine them into something a bit more useful. I think Doug's queue is perhaps a better approach to use, with its inheritance heirarchy, but Mark's queue have the method to combine queues, which is handy. Also, my queue's ability to allow the object to provide its own priority should be implemented in a category of Doug's queue (which is in fact possible to do). Also, a dynamic subclass of Doug's queue which allows objects in the queue to change their priority on the fly would be nice.

MiscTimeAdditions: contributions

Time_Stuff a, o, m: David Lehn, dlehn@arpa.mil

Note: This will be folded into MiscTime (in the future) as a contribution.

getdate.y a, o, m: public domain, Steven M. Bellovin

(smb@research.att.com), Rich Salz (rsalz@bbn.com), and Jim Berets

(jberets@bbn.com)

Note: This code, as it is public domain, will not fall under MiscKit license, but will be folded into the MiscTime object to allow for parsing/pretty printing, etc. in the future. Submitted by Mark Onyschuk along with the PriorityQueue.

ObjCategories.rtf: category

a, o, m: John Karabaic, John_Karabaic@next.com

Note: Host picker method¼ (I think I'll do something like the MiscValueField to tie a textfiled and a button together to create a MiscHostField object. Comments? I think that this would be nice to use in conjunction with the MiscRemoteSubprocess... -don)
