

best of broadband

MUSIC

www.michaeljackson.com
After all the furore surrounding Martin Bashir's Granada TV documentary on the king of pop, true Jackson aficionados can take solace from his official Sony website, complete with options for broadband users.

www.hob.com
Everything a broadband blues fan could want, including live concert cybercasts, pay-per-view events, House of Blues radio, artist interviews, music downloads, club information, event schedules and gift shop.

FILM

www.imdb.com
This film database covers over 200,000 titles and 750,000

actors. It's primed with facts, trivia and reviews as well as multimedia links from the earliest archives to the latest box office releases.

www.starwars.com
The official Star Wars website is the place to go for latest news about the upcoming release, Star Wars: Episode III, as well as features, clips and images of all the characters.

www.iwantmyflashtv.com
This site specialises in demonstrating the world's leading film shorts and animations generated using Macromedia Flash. Contributors include flash-media experts, novice and veteran moviemakers, animators and students from all over the world. Like all the sites here, it's also free.

www.movieflix.com
Movieflix allows you to watch full-length films online and puts countless trailers at your fingertips as well. Choose from thousands of titles from all the standard genres, including action, comedy, drama and horror. Movies are streamed using Real Player or Windows Media Player formats.

EDUCATION

www.nationalgeographic.com/channel/inca
Unwrap virtual mummies found deep beneath a Peruvian shantytown, download Inca Empire maps and explore thousands of photos.

ENTERTAINMENT

www.hollywood.com
A major entertainment source for films, reviews, TV and celebrity news. Hollywood.com is one of the leading film-related sites on the internet, sporting an extensive multimedia library. It also features a collection of independent films that can be viewed online for a monthly subscription fee.

DIGITAL VIDEO

www.mp4.com
Broadband digital video and Flash animation is the name of the game at MP4.com. If you wish to show off your own DV offerings then sign up to MP4's 'Show it' section and share your content with the rest of the world.

TRAVEL

www.mountainzone.com
A one-stop shop for all nature lovers' needs, this website features the latest news, live webcasts and stories. There's countless photos from around the world in addition to full coverage of snowboarding, skiing, mountain biking, hill walking and climbing.

