If you want to jazz up your business stationery or inject creative flair into a family newsletter then Print Perfect Gold has the answer. And if you need to take the car to Europe, relax in the knowledge that you won't get lost with AND Route 2002 Europe lite. Plus, if you invest in the DVD edition then you can't go wrong with a classic episode of Only Fools and Horses

The easy way to load the programs

- 1 Insert the disc into your CD-ROM drive. The PC Advisor main menu screen should appear after a few seconds.
- 2 Click Continue at the Welcome screen. Running along the top of the next screen are the tabs which you click on to access the various sections.
- 3 Click on the section you want to view and then select the program you want to install. You will then see an Install button; click this to load up the program.
- 4 If you experience any problems, refer to the manual instructions given or see the Read Me file. If the program still won't load visit our website or call the helpline. Please remember that PC Advisor can only assist with installation problems. For DVD instructions see page 220.

Oops! We've done it again. Last month we brought you two cover discs and this month we're doing it again. This means we can bring you even more great programs, utilities and shareware than usual. And with nine full programs this month we think you'll have more than enough to keep you occupied until our next issue comes out.

On the first CD-ROM, there's a great desktop publishing program in Print Perfect Gold and a quartet of programs for all music and web radio lovers – MP3 Surgeon, Helix Producer Basic, Helix Universal Server and Liquid Player Promo 6.1 are all here. Find out more about these handy software programs in our feature Surfing the radio waves on page 140.

With the second cover disc you can plan road journeys anywhere in Europe using AND Route 2002 Europe lite, while 1D03 Offline and Things You Can Do On The Internet will guide you to the best of the web. WebExpress 2.0 will help you set up your own site and NeoBook SE will let you create publications that you can post online.

DVD extras

If you've invested in the DVD edition of PC Advisor you're in for a double-sided treat this month. On one side there's all the software from the two CD-ROMs, plus the Games domain where you'll find demos of some of the latest and best games on the market. On the other side there's our exclusive video. This month we've got a treat for all fans of classic comedy with an entire episode of Only Fools and Horses. ■

Cover disc liability

If you've opted for the DVD issue of PC Advisor this month you're in for a real treat – not only have we brought you everything from both of the CD-ROMs, there's also the Games domain, where you can try out loads of different games, some of which we have reviewed in our Lifestyle section this issue (page 193). There's also an exclusive video and this month we have brought you some classic comedy.

Exclusive video – Only Fools and Horses: From Prussia with Love

Only Fools and Horses has become a national institution – 21 years after it first hit the TV screens it's still just as popular. The series made David Jason a household name and launched the career of Nicholas Lyndhurst. The combination of side-splittingly funny scripts and absurd but instantly recognisable character types make Only Fools and Horses indisputably one of the funniest British comedies ever.

→↓ Practice your Delboy, Rodney and Uncle Albert catchphrases with this classic episode of Only Fools and Horses

Although Delboy might try and rip you off as soon as look at you, he's still a loveable and happy-go-lucky chap, although his pretentious behaviour and occasional displays of ignorance will make you cringe. Del's long-suffering younger brother Rodney is often the only person keeping his feet on the ground. In this episode Del tries to solve the problems of a young German girl and a childless couple – while making himself a handsome profit in the process. But there's a sting in the tail for Delboy, much to Rodney's amusement. Put your feet up and enjoy half an hour of classic comedy. ■
