

Designer chic abounds this month, from Felicidade's ultra-hip iPod handbag and Microsoft's leather-effect desktop set to Hoojum's dare-to-be-different PC and La Cie's Porsche-styled drives. Canon continues to impress with its latest digital EOS camera, and we've got clever software that either remembers your passwords or wipes them from your system forever

CANON EOS 300D
Digital camera

Canon's EOS 300D brings all the power of a professional digital camera to the enthusiast market, offering a 6.3Mp CCD, seven-point, high-speed predictive autofocus, 2.5fps (frame per second) burst rate and 35-zone metering. It offers a zoom range equivalent to 28-90mm which is popular among 35mm film EOS users. The 300D also supports PictBridge, so you can print your pictures direct to compatible photo printers.

FELICIDADE TOTE BAG
iPod carry case

The iPod is arguably the most stylish digital audio player out there but its nasty black carry case just doesn't do it justice in the fashion stakes. For the more trendy girl about town, the Felicidade Tote Bag is the ticket. This classy white handbag with integrated speakers is the ultimate in desirability. Looking achingly gorgeous, it's not only designed to hold your player - and show it off - but there's lots of space for all those other bits you just can't leave home without.

HOOJUM CUBIT P4
Desktop PC

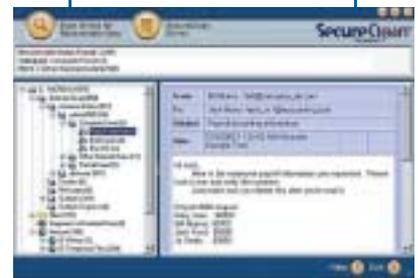

It's a PC, but not as we know it. The team behind the Cubit P4 has as much experience in designing computers as building them - something which is obvious from the system's sleek chrome contours and impressive specs list. The P4 supports up to a 3.2GHz Pentium 4 processor, dual-channel DDR-RAM and a slimline, slot-loading DVD writer, and features two Serial ATA channels - all tucked into a 210x147x300mm box.

CREATIVE INSPIRE T2900 2.1 speakers

Speakers are one area where PC makers tend to skimp, so upgrading is often a wise investment.

Creative is one of the leading names in PC speakers and the T2900 2.1 set is one of its latest systems. It consists of a 17W RMS subwoofer and two 6W RMS satellites.

The set includes an Audio Control Pod, a wired remote control that integrates M-Port connectivity for direct audio playback from Creative Muvo digital audio players.

HP DVD MOVIE WRITER DC3000 DVD writer

HP's dc3000 external DVD writer is aimed at consumers who want to capture, edit and transfer video to DVD. It combines DVD writing capabilities with built-in analogue capture, which means there's no need to buy extra hardware to transfer VHS footage on to DVD discs. The device claims to be simplicity itself. Just hook it up to your PC, plug a video or camcorder into the standard video and audio ports on the drive, and let the HP video transfer wizard guide you through the rest of the process.

AUDIOTRIEVE INBOXER

Utility software

Spam afflicts everyone who uses email but Audiotrieve says it has come up with a way to combat junk mail. Its InBoxer software takes a new approach, using language technologies and techniques, rather than rules and lists, to prevent unwanted messages reaching your Outlook inbox. The developer's speech recognition background has helped it to use the words commonly associated with spam to create personalised filters for each user.
