

Items in an Image Integrator library may be multiple selected in one of two ways. The first way to multiple select items in the library is to click on the first item, then hold down the shift key while clicking on additional items. Another way to select multiple items in the library is to choose Select All from the Item menu on the Image Integrator palette. This selects all of the items in the current library.