

To remove items from an Image Integrator library, select the item or items to be deleted. Use the shift key to multiply select items in the library. Then select Remove from the Item menu found on the Image Integrator library palette. The items vanish from the palette. If library items are deleted in error, close the library without saving the changes made to it, then reopen it.