

If you choose to leave this hidden level for now, enter the water again and follow the route back to the crack and swim up so you can breath, and exit the drink from the stairs. Now you can enter the door. The holes in the floor contain Parasites so hit these creatures first - you'll be spending the rest of your time here fighting the Enforcers and guards on this level - and slightly above you.