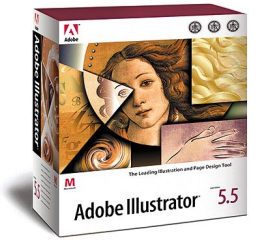
Adobe Illustrator™ 5.5



Adobe Systems
P.O. Box 7900
Mountain View
CA 94039-7900
(800) 833-6687
Fax: (800) 235-0078

Adobe Illustrator 5.5 software for Macintosh®, the industry's leading illustration and page design tool, features a new import/export capability that enables users to open and edit single pages of Portable Document Format (PDF) files. This capability, along with the program's editing tools, provides the fastest way to edit PDF files. Now you can change text characters, adjust curves, add color or gradients, and then export the edited page back to the original PDF file while maintaining links, bookmarks and annotations.

With Adobe Illustrator software, you can not only edit vector-based artwork, but also create new artwork for placement into PDF files. In addition, PDF files that contain photographs (raster or bitmapped images) are automatically tagged with an Adobe Photoshop™ program identification when imported into the Adobe Illustrator program. This allows you to launch Adobe Photoshop software from within the Adobe Illustrator program and to use all Adobe Photoshop tools to manipulate the image. You can then insert edited elements back into the original PDF file.

Adobe Illustrator and Adobe Photoshop are trademarks of Adobe Systems Incorporated which may be registered in certain jurisdictions. Macintosh is a registered trademark of Apple Computer, Inc.

Corel Ventura™ 4.2

Corel Ventura 4.2 brings together the power of Ventura Publisher™ and Ventura Database Publisher™ in one exciting package. Its versatility and user-friendly interface make it ideal for projects of all sizes, such as manuals, training guides, sales literature and newsletters. And now, when you convert Corel Ventura documents to PDF using Adobe™ Acrobat™ Distiller,™ tables of contents and indexes are automatically converted into bookmarks and hypertext links, and cross-references into hypertext links. That means you can quickly and easily navigate through text and images within a PDF file created with Corel Ventura software, by clicking on the topic of choice in a document's index or table of contents. Corel Ventura 4.2 software is also loaded with great extras, such as 100 photos on CD-ROM, more than 600 fonts, more than 10,000 clip art images, Ventura Separator™ and Ventura Scan.™ Available for Windows.™

FrameMaker® and FrameBuilder®

FrameMaker is a powerful authoring tool for writing, designing, publishing and distributing complex business and technical documents. The FrameBuilder product line is designed to make structured document application development accessible to a broad audience of users and corporations. And now, Frame software supports Adobe™ Acrobat™ technology. That means it generates hypertext links from on-page cross-references, such as references to tables, figures or examples. This conversion takes place when files are converted to PDF using the Adobe Acrobat Distiller,™ and it allows for easy navigation through electronic documents. Available for Macintosh® systems. PDF Navigator

ARTLab
1603 Howard Street
San Francisco, CA 94103
(415) 554-0248

This addition for Aldus® PageMaker® 5.0 allows you to create Adobe™ Acrobat™ bookmarks and links from each entry on PageMaker-generated Table of Contents and Index pages. These bookmarks and links allow you to navigate a PageMaker-produced PDF document quickly and easily. You generate a Table of Contents and/or Index using normal PageMaker operations. After doing so, you simply indicate the location of the generated pages to PDF Navigator, and it automatically produces a PostScript™ language file, ready to be converted to PDF using Acrobat Distiller™.

Adobe, Acrobat, Distiller and PostScript are trademarks of Adobe Systems Incorporated which may be registered in certain jurisdictions. Aldus and PageMaker are registered trademarks of Aldus Corporation.

PlexComp™

PlexComp page-formatting software, which has always utilized the Adobe™ PostScript™ language, now also includes PDF capabilities in its standard features. Working with documents of any length, PlexComp automatically builds lists such as tables of contents from tagged text, and automatically creates links and bookmarks for PDF files, such as a link from a table of contents entry to the page and line where the actual entry begins. The program can also automatically create chains of links from user-tagged text. These chains allow readers to skim through a document by clicking on tagged elements, such as section titles. The PlexComp Index Generation System (IGS) automatically builds links from indexes to the exact point where the word or phrase appears. Users can click on each mention of the word or phrase to move immediately to the next mention. Available for Windows™ and UNIX® platforms.

Cascade Systems Limited works with publishers and the prepress industry to guide them toward fast, efficient electronic delivery of their products. Leveraging the latest developments in media management and delivery technologies, Cascade offers customers a range of core products and consulting services that focus on the development of electronic information storage, production management, archive and delivery systems, and integration of data communication systems. The Adobe™ Acrobat™ technology is applied as a proofing and display tool within the production management system and as a compact and flexible storage format in the archive products.

Cascade's product family includes Cascade® DataFlow®, a new production management and tracking system designed to provide publishers with the location and status of any page or page element during the production process. Cascade ImageFlow® controls the flow of high-resolution image data to solve the problems of network bottlenecks and production delays. It can also automatically compress images into PDF files for easy archiving and retrieval. DataFlow and ImageFlow work together to provide integrated management and tracking for all text and graphical page elements.

Courier Corporation (EPIC)

Courier EPIC
15 Wellman Avenue
N. Chelmsford, MA 01863
(508) 251-1240

EPIC revolutionizes the way publishers develop, store, publish, preserve and distribute information. This new division of Courier Corporation works with publishers to maximize the productivity of their own in-house electronic publishing operations and to extend the means to deliver information to their customers. EPIC provides a range of custom solutions, including the Adobe™ Acrobat™ technology, for up-to-the-minute information delivery via CD-ROM, diskette or any other electronic format.

For a recent project, EPIC worked with John Wiley & Sons to create a custom CD-ROM for university professors and their students. The CD allows professors to create their own course textbook by selecting and combining specific chapters from a wide selection of titles. Students using the resulting electronic textbook use Acrobat Reader to navigate the contents, purchase the book and add their own sections.

Sys-Print™

Sys-Print software produces PDF files, complete with bookmarks and links, from report generator output such as mainframe “sys-out” data. That enables large amounts of tabular data to be stored, retrieved and searched quickly and easily on-screen. The software allows for fine control of output format through job specs and FCB parameters. MIS departments, especially, can benefit from this simple, revolutionary way to route information throughout a company. Since this information is distributed in PDF, the original presentation of each page is retained, complete with graphics and text. In addition, Sys-Print software uses PDF forms to reduce file size.
