

NAME ENTRY HELP

To create a new player, click in the name entry box and type a name.

To select the player's sex click on the box marked Sex after a name is entered.

The box marked Status indicates how well you have performed in the test. (None indicates that a test has not been taken.)

Clicking on your name in the list will make you the current player.

Add to list

Click on Add to list to save your details. Your name will appear in the players list as the selected player.

Typing in an existing name will select that player when Add to list is clicked.

Note!

A maximum of 36 players can be in the list at any one time. To remove an existing player to make room for a new one, either go back to the Player menu and use Remove player or select the player you wish to replace and type in a new name.
