

Done Deal!

Pat yourself on the back - but not to the point of getting callouses! You've just accomplished a major feat! You're a "cunning linguist - you spoke Pascal AND C!" But this may be premature exhilaration - you still have to get the thing to run right. That's not part of the job of CTools™. That's YOUR job. But the worst is over and you are unscathed and minus a few pots of coffee (and maybe a box of Preparation H?). Well done!
