You can open any text file, Data Assembler will try to assemble it, giving your many errors if it does not contain valid DASM source text. You can also process files using Drag and Drop from the finder. (see the appropriate section of this help.)