

House: Placement

Important Note: Position the house properly on the lot because from this point forward, all parts of your house are locked together to form a finished house that can be moved around the lot.

To make changes later on, come back to the Wizard. Return by double-clicking on your house at any time while you are in Top View or by choosing House on the Site tab.