Lotto

Lotto is designed to replace your user group's old shoebox full of membership numbers and names and add some pizzaz to the process of drawing for doorprizes at club meetings. Includes source. Author: Mike Groshart

NameGame

A game based on a popular type of word skill puzzle contest generally sponsored by newspapers. Binary only. Author: Mike Savin, Gladstone Productions

Rubik

Translation to C of a Rubiks Cube solver program originally written in Basic by John Murphy. Includes versions to do an "unwrapped" 2D solution, and a more visual 3D solution. Version 0.0, includes source.
Author: Roger Uzun

SensoPro

You try to remember and mimic the sound/color sequence played by the computer. Each time you get it right, another sound/color is added to the sequence. Great practice in case you ever find yourself in a "Close Encounters of the Third Kind" experience. Binary only. Author:
Peter Handel

FallThruV1.0

FallThru is a relatively simple game to play, but you must plan your moves to get the lowest score. The game starts with eight numbered horizontal bars in the center of the screen. Each bar has four holes, randomly spaced. On the top of the bars are eight purple markers that you make FALLTHRU the holes in the bars. You first specify which of the bars you want moved, pressing return after making your selection.
You are then asked for a direction, left or right. Press the 'L' or the 'R' key, then a RETURN. Lastly, you are prompted for how many times you want that bar to move in the direction specified. You may input a number from one to nine. If you feel that you would like to change your mind, type a zero and the prompt will go back to asking for which bar to move. After hitting a number from one to nine and a RETURN, the bar will move. If a marker passes over a hole, it will drop in. You must get all eight markers to drop past the eighth bar in the least amount of moves. You will then get a chance to try to beat your lowest score, or better yet, have a friend to try. Binary only,

BBChampion_v3.21

This is BootBlockChampionIII, a very nicely done program that allows you to load, save, and analyze any bootblock. This is version 3.21, an update to version 3.1. New features include checks for five different LAMER viruses and some other enhancements. Binary only. Author: Roger Fischlin

chatterbox_v1.0

Have the Amiga play IFF audio sample files when events occur.
Chatterbox allows one to load and play sounds on the occurence of several detectable events, such as disk insertion and deletion, calling the DisplayBeep function, a time interval elapsing, preferences chaging, activation and deactivation of Chatterbox's window, and eventually, other events as well. In order that it not eat up your precious "chip" RAM, chatterbox uses your "fast" RAM (if you have any) to cache the loaded sounds, only copying them to chip RAM when it's to play them. There are a maximum of 32 sounds that may be defined for each type of event that Chatterbox can play sounds for, although hard disk users may have many more sounds triggered by timer events (more on this later). Include c source, author:Karl Lehenbauer ob

Obsess-O-Matic is a real-time puzzle game like Tetrix where the object is to fit the falling pieces together to form complete horizontal rows.
Features such as burning, exploding, and invisible pieces enhance game play. Other features such as a puzzle piece editor are included in the version available directly from the author. This is version 1.0, shareware, binary only. Author: Wayne Phillips

Rocket

Another program in the long tradition of screen hacks. This one zeroes in on your mouse pointer. Binary only. Author: Lars Clausen

RollOn_v1.1

A "Soko-Ban" like shareware game, submitted by the author. Includes both English and German versions, a level editor, and digitized sounds.
This is version 1.1, binary only. Author: Tobias Eckert

SnowFall

Another program in the long tradition of screen hacks for the amiga.
Watch the snow fall, get blown around by the wind, and collect in realistic heaps. Includes source. Author: Lars Clausen

CAM #349 Jeux

CapitalGain_v1.0

A simple game of but it low and sell it high based on the stock market.
You have one year to make your fortune and you can buy and sell as many times as you want. The game ends 1. At the end of the year. 2. When some one makes a billion dollars. There is also a save game option that lets you pick up where you left off. Authors: JERRY ADDLESTON AND P.K. WHEELER

ChinaChallenge

A game similar to Shanghai or Mahjong. The goal is to remove all parts of the pile, the so called Dragon, step by step. This dragon is composed of 120 different game pieces. You can always find four pieces displaying the same picture or chin ese symbols. Binary only. Author: Dirk Hoffmann

Conquest_v.93

A war game similiar in concept to the board game Risk. You are the lord of an entire world, destined to rule the galaxy. Some worlds are virgin fruits, ready for you to colonize.Some worlds have natives who do not wish to accept your rule, these you must conquer for they will yield more valuable resources. As you claim the galaxy you will find, you are not the only one extending your dominion. This is a two-player game. Be prepared to defend yourself and take what is yours! Author:
W. Michael Bryant

Dicey!

Yet another Yathzee Game. Authors: Bill Mullen & Mike Monastero

RevComp_v2.0

Plays the classical reversi game on an 8 x 8 square field. Version2.0, an update to version 1.2. Includes source in assembly language.
Author: Marc Fischlin

TriviaTest

Trivia Game. The object is to get as many points as possible in 5 questions. Before each question, you are given the category and then you must choose to bet 1/4, 1/2 or all of your points. Authors: Bill Mullen & Mike Monastero

DiskTalk_v1.0

A cute little program, like "muncho", which plays digitized sound samples when you insert or remove a floppy disk. Samples are saved as IFF sound files. Version 1.0, binary only. Author: Nico Francois

Life_v5.0

Another version of Tomas's Life game. Includes a torus option, an option to perform calculations with the processor rather than the blitter, and more. This is version 5.0, and is about 15% faster.
Includes source. Author: Tomas Rokicki

MiscUtils

Some small sound and screen hacks. Includes source in C. Author:
Jorrit Tyberghein

MoonBase

You must guide a lunar lander to ferry cargo from an orbiting space station to bases on the surface of the moon. You get cargo and fuel for the lander by docking with the space station. The goal is to complete all the assigned cargo deliveries, and to destroy as few landers as possible in doing so. Binary only. Author: Jim Barber

Train

This is a great little train simulation. It lets you lay out all the tracks, and coordinate two trains moving around on the screen! It even has realistic train sound! This program has the ability to load and save all your favorite track layouts. Binary only. Author: Dennis Saunders

WordQuiz

This CanDo deck will drill you on a set of words in Russian – which you enter by clicking on the correct characters in a cyrillic keyboard (on-screen). You can have as many sets of words as you like, with a default of 20 words per list. Author: Thomas Campbell

CAM #363 JEUX:

Car

A two-dimensional full screen scrolling racing game with realistic four channel stereo sound and overscan, for either NTSC or PAL Amigas. The goal is to guide your car around one of ten selected tracks. Each track has its individual high score list. Version 2.0, binary only.
Author: Anders Bjerin

EatIT_v1.05

"Warning" nasty screen hack from "Sick Amiga Soft". Includes source in Modula-II. Author: Jorg Sixt

MiniBlast

A shoot'em up game which runs just fine in a multitasking environment.
At last you can enjoy a satisfying megablast while you are writing a boring essay. Shoot anything that moves, and if it doesn't move, shoot it anyway. This is version 1.00, binary only. Author: Anders Bjerin

Sys

A game built on the addictive game PONGO but with several added features. You have been assigned the demanding task of cleaning viruses from your SYSOP's hard disk. To kill a virus, you simply kick a disk at it. There are fifty different levels, and on each level, the speed will increase and the viruses will be smarter and start to hunt you. Version 2.10, binary only. Author: Anders Bjerin turboMCP

This is another very simple version of the famouse TRON-game, also called CYCLE. The reason for its simplicity is that I've got only a demo-version of the M2-compiler and this damned thing only works with small codes. But neverthe less it's neat,small and you can have a lot of fun with it. You control the game with the keyboard: Includes source in Modula-II. Author: Jorg Sixt

Drip

Drip is an arcade style game with 15 floors (levels). You must move along the pipes of each floor and rust them to advance to the next level. Every 3 floors completed will entitle you to a bonus round where extra drips can be won. An extra drip will also be awarded for every 10,000 points. Binary only. Author: Art Skiles

ForthyThieves

Forty thieves is a truly addictive solitaire, similar to ShangHai.
Like most solitaires, the object of the game is to clear the board of cards. Binary only. Author: Binary only. Author:

Pitch

Simple card game, no doc included, author unknown

SnakePit

A simple, yet addictive game in which you must get the snake (you) off of the screen. There are, however, some rough spots and some obstacles that may need to be overcome. An excellent example of a game that is as system friendly as possible. Includes source. Author: Michael

Bunny

Bunny is a graphic puzzle published in the May 1990 issue of JUMPDISK, It is the basis for a contest with a postmark closing date of August 31, 1990. JUMPDISK will award a total of $500 (U.S. funds) in the form of $100 each to the five entrants who submit best solutions to the puzzle. All entrants who complete the puzzle will receive one public domain disk of JUMPDISK's choice. author: David M. Cole

CRobots_v2.3w

A game based on computer programming. Unlike arcade type games which require human input controlling some object, all strategy in CRobots is condensed into a C language program that you design and write, to control a robot whose mission is to seek out, track, and destroy other robots, each running different programs. All robots are equally equipped, and up to four may compete at once. Version 2.3w, binary only, source available from author. Author: Tom Poindexter, Amiga version by David Wright

CUBE

This program solves Rubik's cube. To solve a cube, paint it to look like your scrambled cube then use the SV command. The program will respond with a series of instructions that, when followed correctly, will restore your cube to the pristine (unscrambled) state. Binary only, author: Atto-Tech Software

Enigmas

'The Enigma Device' is an Amiga game of Cryptograms. It challenge players to decipher short messages encoded using a simple-substitution cipher. Binary only Author: Gaylan Wallis

GerbGame_v1.0

Rabid Gerbils are trying to take over the Amiga and it's your job to stop them - dead in their feet! In GerbGame your job is to kill those evil rabid gerbils. You start out with 20 bullets, on level one. You must score 50 points or more to advance to the next level. There are a total of six levels that you must complete. And at the end of each level you must have so many points to advance to the next. Binary only, author: Charles Massey

StarStruck

Star display screen hack, assembler sources available from author, Author: Mark Everingham

ATC

ATC is a program that simulates an air traffic regional control center.
You are the controller, and you direct the planes (up to 8 at a time) to the airport. You control the planes' heading, altitude and speed.
You receive points for directing the planes correctly to the airport.
You also have to contend with planes departing from the same airport, and you have to make sure that the planes do not collide with each other. You also have only a limited amount of time to get the plane to the airport. You receive fewer points for a late flight, and if a flight is very late, it will run out of fuel and crash. All program input is done with the left mouse button. Binary only, author: Griff Jackson

Stepz!

tron

Another game about the lightcycle race sequence in the science fiction computer film "Tron". One or two players and other options. Written in GFA-BASIC and then compiled. Version 1.1, binary only. Author: Dirk Hasse

WellTrix

WellTrix game well leisure sounds WellTrix is a game similar to WellTris, in which pieces are moved around the sides of a well and drop to the bottom. Filled rows or columns are deleted, as in Tetris. Not quite 3D, more like 2.5D. This version has many user-specifiable options, but currently, they can only be specified when run from WorkBench (the CLI interface is, er, minimal). Some sample sounds are included, but they are not required for the game (an internal default takes over). WellTrix is FreeWare, written by gmill, to whom email comments may be left (no complaints, I hope). Binary only, author:

sources, author: Anthony Thyssen

CribMaster

A nice Cribbage Game written by Michael Sinz. Binary only.

EUCHRE_v1.1

Euchre is a card game where you have a computer partner and play against two other computer partners. You are able to set the play levels of the computer partner/competitor. This should be included in any gamers collection. Binary only, author: Bob Hruska MandelBlitz_v1.0

Yep, another Mandelbrot program. Binary only, author: Nico Francois

Mines_v2.83

A small WorkBench window program, wherein you try to cross a minefield of specifiable size. It shows you how many mines are immediately next to each cell, and with a little logic, you can (ususally) get to the destination. The program uses the WorkBench colors and attempts to manage them so as to present things in a 3D appearance (without any help from 2.0). I'd appreciate feedback if my methods have been futile, but it does seem to work on my mostly-greyscale WB, on the default WB, and a few others I've tried. Binary only, author: Gary W.
Milliorn

MutantsFromMars

This is a Droids-type game wherein you move a spaceman around on the screen while trying to get the Mars mutants to crash into each other and die. Other mutants will be killed when they run into the radioactive heap left behind - but all is not rosy for your spaceman either! Have a look. Binary only. Author: M. Whitehead.

slot

Slot is a Connect-4 type of a game. Binary only, author: Jeff Shi

Spades_v1.1

"Spades" is a program written to play the card game Spades. It may be run from the CLI or the Workbench. This is a one player version of Spades -- you play one hand, and the computer plays your partner and two opponents. C source included. Author: Greg Stelmack spiders

EnergionBattleSystem_v1.0

Powerful programmable wargame simulator. The Energion Battle System is a scenario creation and playing system for wargamers or role-playing gamers to use in adjudicating or simulating complex combat situations.
It uses a system of user-configurable modules to allow detailed construction of military units which may be played by the human players against each other or with any number of forces played by the computer.
It supports second by second or minute by minute combat, up to 32 forces or "sides," AREXX (tm) script language, and up to 32 terrain types defined and represented by colors in an IFF picture file used as a map. It also supports creation of global maps and reprjection of one type of map onto another. EBS requires a 1 megabyte Amiga with about 650KB free to run. Binary only, author: Henry E. Neufeld

ImperiumRomanum_V1.50E

Strategic, "RISK" style game for up to four players. Based in the ancient times of Rome, Athens, Alexandria and Carthago. Binary only,

Ekke Verheul

PUZZ

Very nice implementation of the sliding-block-puzzle concept. Good graphics and the ability to create your own puzzles using an IFF ILBM file and a text file. Includes source and several sample puzzles.
Version 1.0. Author: Martin Round

Raps

This is a neat little strategy game that can be played in a very small window on your workbench - neat time passer while you wait for something else to happen! It has some of the flavor of chess or checkers, is small, plays the game quickly. You can play against the computer or against a friend. Binary only. Author: Alan Smith.

Rubik

Another 3D Rubik's cube solver Version 1.0, includes source. Author: Martin Round

TAXMAN

This game has no fancy graphics, but it is a very challenging one. You are playing against the taxman, who has ALL the advantages (don't they always?), but you can defeat him if you are sufficiently sharp! This game involves numbers and factors, and is based on mathematical strategy. Binary only. Author: Jurgen Forster

Version 2.4 of the Ansi editor Binary only Author: P-E Raue

FurLess

FurLess - a fun graphics and sound demo program, by Wesley Howe.
Includes asm sources.

Prism_v1.10

Prism is an ANSI graphics animators for the Amiga. No, Prism does not make high resolution pictures, it makes those neat animated screens that you see over the modem. The reason why I call it an ANSI animator instead of an ANSI editor is because this program was designed to make animated screens and not simple colour title screens. Include C sources, Author: Colin Vernon

Scene3DX

Now you can create spectacular 3D views for X-Specs 3D glasses from any Sculpt3D object or scene file. Scene3DX renders Sculpt3D ojects using scan line polygon shading. Save the finished view as an IFF ILBM file.
Viewer included. Binary only, Author: Richard Horne

AmigaQ

AmigaQ is a game of skill. You can run it from its icon or from the CLI (run AmigaQ). It multitasks nicely, goes away when told, and is quite well-behaved. It is also fun. You are to jump one peg over another, one at a time, in such a way that there is only one peg left on the board after your last permissible move. Quite challenging.

Running

'Running' is a classical maze and puzzle game. You run around in a maze and try to catch the ghosts or spiders. Of course do not forget to collect some bonus points. 'Running' requires both speed of reaction and logic thinking. In fact, you can play this game with two aims in mind. One is to collect as many bonuses as you can. This is called 'The struggle for the highscore'. The other aim is simply to solve each level. Work in PAL only, Author:Jorrit Tyberghein

FindMe_v1.0

This is just a quick little game I threw together! It will show the complete alphabet at the bottom of the screen and some empty blocks above that. The empty blocks represent a word that you must guess at its letters. You do that by clicking on one of the LETTERS in the alphabet blocks at the bottom, if you get a correct letter... it will show its position in what was the empty blocks. If it is NOT in the word.. you will be told. You can click on the HINT block to get a slight hint as to what the word might be. Of course if you click in the GIVE UP block... you will be shown what the word was. If you click in the top BLOCK that has "F I N D M E !" on it... you can take a guess at the word. Wrong guesses will show you what the word was and will go onto the next word. binary only. Author: Mike Dissinger

Colors_v1.0

The object of COLORS is simply to form lines of four blocks or more of the same colors. Pieces which consist of three blocks are randomly picked and then fall down in a T*tris-like style. There are four different colors with which you can form lines, so there are technically 64 different pieces, but since they can be rotated, there are (I think) only 34 different pieces. The bigger the lines that you form are, the more points you get. Also, if you clear more than one

RoleMaster_v1.0

The main part of this package is a character generator for ICE's RoleMaster FRPG. It handles all of the "bookkeeping", making creation of PCs and NPCs faster and easier, while still allowing you full control over how the character develops. It is designed to be flexible; most optional or house rules can be incorporated with little or no difficulty. It draws from the basic game, as well as from Companions I-V and from the Elemental Companion, so all the multitude of classes and skills are available. All the background option tables are also included. Spell development can be handled either by the traditional "by list pick" method, or by the "by spell" method introduced in the Companions. It also features the ability to "randomly" advance characters, and a combat program based on the "Super Fast Combat System" introduced in RMCIII, and a weather generator based on the system presented in TSR's AD&D Wilderness Survival Guide. Last, but not least, the package is extensively documented, so it shouldn't be too difficult to utilize. This is version Am1.0 for the Amiga,

War_Wizard_v1.01

WarWizard is a fantasy role-playing game similar in concept and style to many other computer games that have been around for over ten years.
Yet while it is not intended to be revolutionary in concept and approach, it is evolutionary and contains many details and features not found in other games of the same genre. The authors have attempted to create the most realistic and involved role-playing game given their resources, but have also tried to exclude tedious and annoying features found elsewhere. This objective is obviously subjective, however the authors, who have played and enjoyed most role-playing games on the market, feel they have met the majority of their goals in creating WarWizard. Binary only, author: Brad McQuaid
