Good executives never put off until tomorrow what they can get someone to do today.

Learn from the mistakes of others - you can never live long enough to make them all yourself.

Consider how hard it is to change yourself and you'll understand what little chance you have of trying to change others.

WHEN YOU ASK people to do something, be sure to also tell them why. It's well worth the time and effort.

My Grandfather once told me that there are two kinds of people: those who do the work and those who take the credit. He told

An optimist goes to the window every morning and says, "Good morning, God." The pessimist goes to the window and says, "God

"There's no need to fear; Underdog is here!"

"In America, Saturday night's the big night. No work, no school... and when you get home, no money."

"On the first day of Christmas, My true love gave to me... A beer."

"Well, that's ANOTHER fine mess you've gotten me into."

"Cloudy waters cast no reflection."

Final call for boarding, all passengers to East Detroit, Flat Rock, Au Gres, Port Huron and Sarnia.

"I'm on a seafood diet. Whenever I see food..."

People trust the stability of technology too much. I mean, what would happen if tomorrow all the power companies decided to

By now you're probably wondering if these ever end...

"We have an animal called the fly...' Why don't we have one called the walk?"

"....wish I didn't know now what I didn't know then."

"Suprise, suprise, suprise"

"If you keep your money in your shoe, then people will know which bills are yours."
