The Eyebrows

Eyebrows reflect person's confidence and vitality. Ideal eyebrows are thick, long and elegant. Exceptionally long eyebrows are sign of above average intellectual ability. Eyebrows are not necessarily mirror copies of each other. The left eyebrow indicates the mental outlook on the personal life and the right eyebrow indicates the mental outlook on the outside world. Women often alter natural shape of their eyebrows and that makes the evaluation difficult. Any conclusions therefore must be supported with other favorable facial features on the ears and forehead.

Thin and curved eyebrows point to low vitality and lack of confidence. Lower set eyebrows signify hesitant and insecure mind. Higher set eyebrows signify carelessness and wickedness. If eyebrows hair is scattered the person lacks inner sparkle and drifts through life.

Thick and curved eyebrows are the most common type and speak of longevity, brisk mind and healthy self-confidence. Such individuals live happy lives and are destined to achieve recognition and prosperity. Lower set eyebrows point to more prudent, cautious nature and higher set eyebrows expose the risk taker and daredevil.

Straight and evenly thick eyebrows reveal straightforward, logical person who sticks to the facts. Such individuals do not let emotions affect their judgment. Before any decision they do their homework, and after adopting a view, they do not change their mind easily. In any venture, they stay firmly on the course until the end.

Eyebrows straight and thinner at the outer edges speak of tolerant and practical person. Such individuals are responsible, plan ahead and follow proven ways. They are not gamblers and they choose slow and steady progress toward prosperity.

Eyebrows straight and thicker at the outer edges speak of stern and dominant person. Such individuals make bold leaders and could be found among managerial ranks. If hair is too bushy it reveals cruel and despotic personality.

Boomerang shape eyebrows signify self-confidence and strength of will. The sharper is the boomerang shape more free-willed and independent person is. People with such eyebrows want to be in control and want to get ahead by their own way. If found on woman face she likely makes first move in love affairs.

Eyebrows sloping upward denominate selfish and egoistic character. Such individuals will not stop until they impose their own will on others.

Eyebrows long and elegant speak of person of fine taste and superior intellect. If found on the woman's face such woman is likely to have a lot of fleeting affairs.

Eyebrows bent down indicate passive character. Such individuals are shy and fear the world. They tend to be underachievers in life.

Eyebrows short and thick speak of explosive nature. Life is full of twists and surprises for people with such eyebrows. However, they accept challenges and are capable of overnight success. Short and too bushy eyebrows reveal mental instability and such person attracts conflicts and exhibit criminal behavior.

Eyebrows short and thin indicate overly sensitive personality. Such people have difficulty to face challenges of life. They tend to drift through life, frequently changing their career, philosophy of life and friends. Their amorous nature might lead to sensual debauchery.

Eyebrows weak and broken speak of treacherous and deceitful person. Such individuals blend into any group like chameleon. They are excellent negotiators as they always extract more information than they reveal.

Eyebrows sloping downward indicate person who has imagination and foresight but lacks the courage to take risks. Should the hair grow between the eyebrows such person is considered very unlucky.

Eyebrows straight and linked indicate introverted nature unconcerned with opinion of others. People possessing such eyebrows are strong willed and intense. They get easily irritable by life setbacks but not easily discouraged. Woman with such eyebrows puts her professional career before housekeeping duties.
