

THE Pascal Magazine

Back Issues Now Available!

If you program in Borland Pascal or Turbo Pascal and are looking for good technical information to help you with your projects, then read on.

The Pascal Magazine (no longer in publication) focussed on Borland/Turbo Pascal, with lots of practical articles, Tips & Tricks, book and product reviews etc. Highlights included Ray Bernard's long-running series on developing for DOS protected mode and Bob Swart's Pascal Efficiency column. A free code disk was included with each issue, containing all the source code and shareware/freeware libraries too.

We have copies available for Issues 3 to 8, complete with their free companion disks, which you can now order from us at discount prices! Below is a short summary of the contents of the issues we have available. To order, just complete the form below and send it to us by fax or post, or send it by CompuServe email to 70630,717.
