

Fishways

Waterfalls, rapids, log jams, landslides, beaver dams, man made dams and culverts can block the migration of fish upstream. To help fish move around these obstacles, fishways of different types have been built. Fish ladders, for example, are a series of steps, with water flowing over them.

Help these fish find their way up the fish ladder.

