

Getting Started

Thankyou for using Java Script It! Here is a list of items you should view before using Java Script It!...

1. Please read the 'readme.txt' file for late breaking information on Java Script It!. Please read the 'license.txt' file for terms of use. Both of these files can be found in the directory that Java Script It! was installed to.
2. View the HTML Sample documents found in the HTML folder of the directory that you installed Java Script It! to. This will allow you to get a good feel for what each application in Java Script It! does.
3. View Java Script It! Info found in the help files to provide additional information on each application such as browser compatibility and troubleshooting issues for each application.
4. View the Tips section in the Help files for information on how you should prepare your documents for use with Java Script It!