Draging Well Usage

The dragging wells are the only hot areas for accepting files.   They will image a grayed out copy of the file icon until you actually release the icon into the well.

Single clicking on a well will cause the main Workspace browser to go to the directory of the file in the well.   Double clicking will cause the Workspace Manager to open a new browser at that point.