

The header.dat file is prepended to any POV files you generate. The included file just includes basic light source(s), etc. You'll have to download the POV docs for more info on this file.