

Field Positions

Fields (1) on an envelope template may be repositioned to desired locations by holding down the Alternate key and dragging the field to a new location. Field positions are saved with the template settings, and so are remembered the next time the program is used. When an envelope is resized, the fields will be repositioned automatically.

(1) Poste envelope fields are: Sender text, Recipient text, Message text and a possible graphic illustration.