

HostManager

Network Time Configuration window

4PointRule2.eps ↗

Use this window to enable or disable network time service and designate which hosts will act as time servers for the network.

Choose Network Time Configuration from the Network menu to open this window.

560028_PointRule2.eps ↗

stepArrow.tiff ↗ Panel task definition text.

Click client if you want this computer to get its time from the network.

Click Clone if you want this computer to host a clone network time server.

Click Master if this computer has access to precise time and you want it to host a master network time server.

447675_paste.tiff ↗

The text box show a computer named earth is selected from the members of the domain.

Click Set to enable your choices of which computer hosts a particular time service.

Click Revert to restore the previously saved state.

A check in the Time Service Enabled box will run the chose time service when the computer next boots up. Uncheck this box to disable the time service.