Setting the Default Project and Category for a File. ach file has it's own default category and project. To set the default project or category for a TimeTracker document, select Default from the Projects or Categories menu. The project or category selected in the pop-up menu becomes the default project or category for the document when you click on the Start button.