

Gazetteer

interface to the University of Michigan Geographic Name Server

DD

gaz·et·teer \,gaz-e-'ti(e)r\ n (1611)

1 archaic: JOURNALIST, PUBLICIST

2 [The Gazetteer's: or, Newsman's Interpreter, a geographical index edited by Laurence Echard ²1730 Eng. historian]: a geographical dictionary; also: a book in which something (as wines or restaurants)

is treated esp. in regard to geographic distribution and regional

specialization

DD

Lookup U.S. place names, including all cities, counties, states, some mountains, rivers, lakes, national parks, and a few international cities. Data came primarily from the US Geodetic Survey and the US Postal Service; a few inaccuracies remain. Merit Inc. is not responsible for maintaining the data.

Queries should look like the last line of a postal address:

Santa Claus, IN 47579

They may also be:

ed(1)-style regular expressions \ni [Bb]os.*n$

a city name \ni Dwarf, Elf a ZIP or ZIP+4 code \ni 17534 or 48103-2112

a city or regular expression with a state name \ni Wacker, IL

a foreign city \ni Paris, , France (note \pm 2 commas) comments on service to: Tom Libert, libert@eecs.umich.edu, 313-936-3000

NeXT interface by: Michael Hawley (mike@media-lab.mit.edu) copyright © 1990 Merit Inc. All rights reserved.

copyright © November 1991, MIT Media Laboratory