SS&S ObjectWare

There are no runtime license fees for any SS&S ObjectWare; once you have paid for a palette, you do not need to pay again for applications created with that palette. All SS&S ObjectWare is provided with under a floating license for maximum convenience to the developer. Unless otherwise noted, all SS&S ObjectWare is shipping now for both NeXT and Intel hardware, and with the exception of the SSSDBKit+Palette, Software Services and Solutions, Inc., is committed to providing compatible versions of SS&S ObjectWare for Motif and Windows NT.

SSSSPalette™

Give your custom applications access to the power of graphical statistical and data analysis with the SSSSPalette™ from Software Services and Solutions, Inc. - the NEXTSTEP IB Palette that acts as a gateway to the S statistical system.

The SSSSInterface™ class allows applications straightforward, real-time access to the powerful, mature analysis capabilities of the S system. The SSSSView™ class displays graphical output from S inside your custom application. The S process can run on any computer on the network, enabling client-server design of computation-intensive applications, such as real-time market analysis systems.

Availability: The SSSSPalette is available for NEXTSTEP 3.1 on NeXT and Intel platforms; it will be available under NEXTSTEP on HP platofrms and OpenStep on Sun and other platforms shortly. For the SSSSPalette to operate, some machine on the user's network must run AT&T's S (or a compatible system, such as S-PLUS from StatSci), and SSSSDaemon™.

Price: *SSSSPalette for a single developer $795.

SSSSDaemon for a single NeXT, Sun, or HP workstation $195.
Contact Software Services and Solutions, Inc., for site licensing information and for information on the availability of SSSSDaemon for other platforms.
