

Masha

When worshippers enter or leave the shrine enclosure they may make an offering at one of the masha (smaller shrines) which are dedicated to lesser deities connected to the main kami. At the bigger shrines there are often a number of these, and visitors will make offerings at different masha, depending on the purpose of their visit and the nature of the kami enshrined there.