My project plan is to create a website for my mom's retail store. The name of the store is Country Collection. I plan to create a page with our current newsletter, a page with our contact information, an events page and a page that shows pictures of the new arrivals that came in that day.