

DAILY BULLETIN NO. 8
Thursday, September 12th

Do not train children to learning by force and harshness, but direct them to it by what amuses their minds, so that you may be better able to discover with accuracy the peculiar bent of the genius of each.

Congratulations to the following Homecoming candidates for 2013! Lexi Campbell, Gretchen Grams, Kendra Mickelson, Stacia Staska, Korinna Mickelson, JD Beasley, Andrew DeMenge, Layne Sprague, Jordan Kliwer & Jesse Greene. Please see Deb today so we can set up a “photo shoot” with Mr. Brula!

Adam from MN Grad Services will be here tomorrow morning from 8:00 - 8:30am to take orders.

NHS and Jr. NHS community service opportunity: Working with Northland Assisted Living senior citizens. Contact Evelyn Gardner at 218.768.3356 for details. Double hours will be offered for NHS members who wear their t-shirts when volunteering for this activity.

Vending Machines in Commons: Several people lost money yesterday because the Dasini/Coke machine got jammed up with a half-dollar coin. There has been a sign on that machine since last year saying only quarters, nickels and dimes will work. None of the machines will accept 50¢ pieces or pennies.

College Fairs for interested Jrs & Srs:

- National College Fair in Minneapolis on Sept. 24th or 25th
- Wisconsin Education Fair on Sept. 16th at WI Superior campus.

*If you are interested in attending either, you'll need to provide your own transportation and have permission from parents. See Ms Dayton if interested and with questions.

Seniors! Scholarships will be posted on the wall near Ms Dayton's hallway. It will be updated weekly or as needed. There are many opportunities for scholarships throughout the year, so check weekly! The Scholarship page on our website (under Counselor) will also be updated.
