

DAILY BULLETIN NO. 9

Friday, September 13th

Happy Friday the 13th!!

Education cost money, but then so does ignorance.

Claus Moser

Today

- MN Grad Services here at 8am for class ring orders. 8:0 - 8:30am
- FB vs Isle - Home. Kids Plus has concessions

National Guard rep. will be here on Monday from 11:00am to 12:00 in the commons.

NHS and Jr. NHS community service opportunity: Working with Northland Assisted Living senior citizens. Contact Evelyn Gardner at 218.768.3356 for details. Double hours will be offered for NHS members who wear their t-shirts when volunteering for this activity.

NHS and Jr. NHS: New t-shirts for community service bonus hours have come in. Inductees who were not able to get one last spring can pick one up now.

Vending Machines in Commons: Several people lost money yesterday because the Dasini/Coke machine got jammed up with a half-dollar coin. There has been a sign on that machine since last year saying only quarters, nickels and dimes will work. None of the machines will accept 50¢ pieces or pennies.

College Fairs for interested Jrs & Srs:

-National College Fair in Minneapolis on Sept. 24th or 25th

-Wisconsin Education Fair on Sept. 16th at WI Superior campus.

*If you are interested in attending either, you'll need to provide your own transportation and have permission from parents. See Ms Dayton if interested and with questions.

Seniors! Scholarships will be posted on the wall near Ms Dayton's hallway. It will be updated weekly or as needed. There are many opportunities for scholarships throughout the year, so check weekly! The Scholarship page on our website (under Counselor) will also be updated.
