

You have entered the tomb of kings. The pharaohs created the labyrinth to protect their burial place. No telling how many more surprises they have in store.