

There are words etched onto the wall, they read: A powerful magic item called the Eye of Horus was planted within the pyramid to one day combat a great evil. To ensure that this artifact did not fall into the wrong hands the magical key was broken into three pieces and spread across the land. Only a group of righteous and determined adventurers would be able to retrieve the artifact and use it against the great evil.