Recently I had the pleasure of talking with the voice of B.O.B. from the Marathon series of games. For those of you that aren't familiar with BOBs, they are inhabitants of the Marathon station (amongst other places) and are named BOBs because they were 'Born On Board' the Marathon ship. The man behind the BOB voice is Doug Zartman, the PR director for Bungie Software.

IMG: How did you end up doing the voice of BOB?

MG: How many different BOB sounds were originally recorded? What didn't make it in?

MG: Was there anything different about the doing the Marathon Infinity BOB?

MG: See us starside?
