

Configuring User Accounts and Managing User Issues

Chapter 5 describes the tasks associated with managing user accounts on your system and dealing with your users. Topics described in this chapter include:

- Creating and deleting user accounts
- Changing user account information
- Configuring a user's login environment
- Communicating important information to users.
- Information on UID and GID issues.

