

SUBJECT CENTRE MATERIAL

Resources to support the Development of Student Employability: practice developed in different Subject Centres that might be of interest to you.

Updated July 2003.

The work of the Art and Design Subject Centre has a new website under construction, and employability papers, including outcomes of mapping, case studies, links etc.	http://www.bton.ac.uk/adc-itsn
The Economics Subject Centre has materials concerning PBL and PDP in its website, notable within their Handbook for Economics lecturers.	http://www.economics.ltsn.ac.uk/handbook/
Results of a student survey (Skills development and future employment') are also available

The Education in the Built Environment website contains case studies on employability related issues such as PDP, WBL and the RAPID progress File at	http://www.cebe.ltsn.ac.uk/learning/casestudies/index.html
The Engineering Subject Centre devotes a page on its website to directing users to useful Employability resources. Resources are continuously updated and added to this. It is planned to adapt the Generic Centre's Directory of Employability Resources to make it more relevant to Engineering issues.	http://www.ltsneng.ac.uk/er/employability/index.asp
The English Subject Centre has produced a report which includes details of current employability Projects in the Humanities.	www.english.ltsn.ac.uk
Within the Geography, Earth and Environmental Sciences (GEES) Subject Centre website the pages arising from the Geography Discipline Network list publications about employability related issues. Additional e-material from GEES includes LTSN-GEES Resource Database Enhancing GEES Graduate Employability Project page This includes a link to the results of their survey of academic staff on employability.	http://www.glos.ac.uk/gdn/guides/dfeesumm.htm http://www.tellus.ac.uk/ http://www.gees.ac.uk/Projects/employ.htm
The Health Sciences and Practice SC have research projects working in areas associated with employability.	URLs to add
The Hospitality Sports, Leisure and Tourism Subject Centre has produced electronic and hard copy versions of its HAVE (Hospitality Adding Value for Education) pack. This IS designed for students working in the hospitality, leisure and tourism areas even though it is not their subject of study. Through a reflective log it allows them to gain credit for skills developed in such part time employment.	AVAILABLE SHORTLY

The Languages Subject Centre has produced a 'Language Box' aimed at reversing the decline in student numbers in the subject and demonstrating that graduates from the discipline are employable.	http://www.lang.ltsn.ac.uk/languagesbox.aspx
The Law Subject Centre has a section of its website devoted to employability matters.	http://www.ukcle.ac.uk/resources/employability.html
The Philosophical and Religious Studies Subject Centre have just (07/03) completed a national survey of the Subject Community. When collated, this will result in: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A map of current/good practice; • An Employability Guide for academic staff; • Case Studies of PRS alumni. 	For details contact: clare@prs-ltsn.ac.uk or consult www.pre-ltsn.ac.uk/employ
The Physical Sciences Subject Centre has produced a briefing paper/toolkit and a card sort available through their website. A further resource pack is currently (07/03) under development.	http://dbweb.liv.ac.uk/ltsnpssc/briefing_papers/employ8.htm (briefing paper) http://www.physsci.ltsn.ac.uk/employ.htm (card sort)