

Moral Frameworks

An audiovisual presentation on 'how people make moral decisions'.

Presented by Dr David Cook
Produced by Dr Andy Bond
(bondal@wmin.ac.uk)

Looking for evaluators of the beta-version

1

Moral Frameworks

How people make moral decisions

- 1.Principles (Deontological)
- 2.Consequences (Teleological)
- 3.Greatest pleasure (Hedonistic)
GHP & Utilitarianism
- 4.No absolutes (Relativism)
- 5.Nothing buttery (Reductionism)

Dr David Cook

Wondering how to incorporate moral theory into your ethics module?

Don't have anybody who can give a lecture on it?

Could use supplementary web material on moral theory?

Willing to look at it as a possibility?

3

Is 'moral theory' dealt with on any ethics programme(s) you are associated with?

- 1) Yes  14 votes
- 2) No  2 votes
- 3) Don't know/Not applicable  3 votes

Cont = R
to equal
E to end

4

Is there a potential use for this particular presentation on said ethics programme(s)?

- 1) Yes  13 votes
- 2) No  2 votes
- 3) Unsure  1 vote

Cont = R
to equal
E to end

5

Could you usefully use this sort of Personal Response System to collect student opinion, when teaching bioethics to large groups?

- 1) Yes  17 votes
- 2) No  1 vote
- 3) Don't know/Not applicable  0 votes

Cont = R
to equal
E to end

6

Round-up

Thanks

7

Would you attend another day such as this one, or is one enough?!

- 1) Attend another  5 votes
- 2) One is enough!  0 votes
- 3) Attend many more  10 votes
- 4) Unsure  1 vote

Cont + R
to respoll
E to end

8

How interested are you in attending a residential few days, considering some bioethical issues in depth?

- 1) Very interested  11 votes
- 2) Fairly interested  10 votes
- 3) Probably not interested  1 vote
- 4) No way  1 vote
- 5) Unsure  0 votes

Cont + R
to respoll
E to end

9

Would the inclusion of the 'theoretical treatment of some bioethical issue' be a useful addition to days such as today?

- 1) Definitely would  2%
20 votes
- 2) Probably would  2%
20 votes
- 3) Probably would not  1%
20 votes
- 4) Definitely would not  0%
20 votes
- 5) Unsure  1%
20 votes

Cont + R
to respoll
E to end

10

End

Have a safe onward trip

11