Rating

Worth a Try

This dish was quite good, but a bit on the expensive side as the restaurant is located in the Soho area. The pork was quite tender, however it didn't have the wok smell because their kitchen didn't have open flame stove. Therefore it's not too crispy, but still had some crispiness.

Worth a Try

Includes soup of the day and a bowl of rice.

This sweet and sour pork was well executed. The pork was crispy. It showed the double fry cooking technique. The vegetable was crunchy and fresh. The only thing was the pork pieces
