ADOBE AUTHORIZED SERVICE PROVIDERS

Quality Adobe Output

Adobe Authorized Service Providers are companies who output, image or render files their customers create with Adobe software, for both print and electronically based media. By joining the Adobe Authorized Service Provider Program, these companies receive Adobe's highest level of support. In return, they commit to supporting the Adobe software typically used in their business, and to meeting the quality requirements of design and communication professionals who use Adobe Products. Simply put, they are more likely to meet your quality Adobe output needs than companies who aren't Adobe Authorized.

Comprehensive list of member services

The online regional listings of Adobe Authorized Service Providers include detailed lists of services for each company—in plain English—to assist your selection process. When you've chosen an Adobe Authorized Service Provider who provides the output services you need, you can confidently send them your Adobe™ PageMaker,™ Adobe PhotoShop,™ Adobe Illustrator,™ Adobe Persuasion,™ Adobe Acrobat™ or Adobe Premiere™ files for quality output. You can also count on them to have, or easily get, the Adobe type fonts you've used in your files.

For best results, discuss platform and production details with your service provider before beginning or revising a major project.

New members added monthly

Quality production companies are joining the Adobe Authorized Service Provider Program everyday. New members are added to the regional directories each month. Online, go to the Adobe Home Page on the Internet via World Wide Web address <http://www.adobe.com/> (look for hotlinks to member web sites in August). Or access the Adobe Forum on America OnLineSM or CompuServe®. Adobe's FaxYI system has abbreviated listings for all members. Call (206) 628-5737 and download document #499200 for the FaxYI regional index. FaxYI is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Give us your feedback

We're looking for great stories to publish about you and your service provider. And we want your ideas on how to improve the listings. Fax your comments to the Adobe Authorized Service Provider Program at fax number (206) 386-8822, or leave us a message at (800) 685-3510.
