

There is this girl I know

There is this girl I know,
I love her very much.
She has long brown hair,
a glowing smile,
and the most beautiful eyes that let you see her soul.
She has this playful presence about her,
like a young kitten looking at the new world.
This girl...she is.....very far away;
but I keep her close to my heart.
She is very close when I do this.
Some day, we will be together again,
walking hand in hand;
And then all will be right.
