Boomer Stats Ink. - If you're not cheating, you're not trying hard enough

Instructions:

1. This is SHAREWARE. If you use this spreadsheet, please send $5 to:

Dave Gatian
 17115 Greenwood Ave.
 Cleveland, OH 44111-3904

Thank you.

2. The printout range of your summary sheet is A1...V56. If you don't use "career statistics" then only printout through column S.

3. Abbreviations at top of columns (from left to right):

BA	Where ranked based on batting average. If tied, slugging
Player	Name
Games Played	Uh...games played
To Plate	Number of times to the plate, this includes unofficial at bats
At Bats	Official at bats. This column takes "Times to Plate" - walks
Hits	Hits
1B	Singles
2B	Doubles
3B	Triples

HR	Home Runs
BB	Walks
Sac	Sacrifices
On Base	This is total on base other than a hit or walk. It includes error
Batting Average	Hits divided by Official At bats
Slugging Percentage	Total bases on hits divided by At Bats. 4.000 means the b
On Base Percentage	Based on times reached base by hit, walk, error, non-innin
RBI	Runs batted In
Runs Scored	Runs scored
92-98 Btg. Avg.	Batting Average for 1992 through 1998.
92-98 At Bats	Official At Bats 1992 - 1998
+/- Career	This year's batting average compared to career batting ave

4. To Set-up:

1. Enter each player's name in column C
2. Enter Official At Bats and Hits for years 1992 -1997 in columns X...AI for each player
If you use fewer years, delete the columns not used and change the labels in cells T3 and U3.
3. Put your schedule in C28...C52 and E28...E52

5. To Use once games are played:

1. Anchor your titles at C5
2. Tab over to "Game 1" starting in Column AJ. For subsequent games enter same information in column AJ.
3. Enter each player's information for that game. If they made an appearance, enter "1" in the column for that player.
4. Once each player's info is entered, calculate the spreadsheet by pressing "F9".
5. Sort the spreadsheet. It will list players in order of their batting average, with slugging percentage.
6. Enter the game highlights beginning in N29, e.g., "Billy no-hitter, John 4 for 4 with HR, Br..."
7. Enter the game score and your record in columns G, I and K, starting with row 29.
8. Save the spreadsheet. I recommend using game number or date in the save, such as:
"Game1.wk4" or "071198.wk"

Next game, pull that spreadsheet up and immediately save it under the new name if you

6. Email me at boomxtwo@aol.com with questions, suggestions, etc.
