

This AppleScript can be used to update the file references of records after the file server name or its AppleTalk zone name has changed. Please select a record that references a file from the old file server location before running this script. This script will ask for the new location and will change every other file reference from that server to the new location.
©1995-97 Canto Software